Phan, 2016-01-26 Without question inter religious relations are crucial in the contemporary age While most dialogue works on past and contemporary matters this volume takes on the relations among the Abrahamic religions and looks forward toward the possibility of real and lasting dialogue The book centers upon inter faith issues It identifies problems that stand in the way of fostering healthy dialogues both within particular religious traditions and between faiths The volume s contributors strive for a realization of already existing common ground between religions They engagingly explore how inter religious dialogue can be re energized for a new century Interfaith Dialogue Edmund Kee-Fook Chia, 2016-09-15 This book addresses issues central to today s Catholic Church focusing on the relationship between various religions in different contexts and regions across the world The diverse array of contributors present an inclusively interfaith enterprise investigating a wide range of encounters and perspectives The essays include approaches from the Jewish Muslim Buddhist and Bah traditions in a variety of geographic contexts Contributors reflect on Muslims in the West Christian Buddhist social activism and on Chinese Indian and Japanese religions The volume also explores the experiences of communities that are often marginalized and overlooked such as the Aborigines and Torres Strait Islanders of Australia and the Karen tribal peoples of Thailand Contributors examine the works of the Focolare Glen and Rissh K sei kai movements and integrate the vision of Raimon Panikkar and Ken Wilber Chapters incorporate discussions of dialogue documents such as Nostra Aetate and Dabru Emet and methodologies such as Receptive Ecumenism Comparative Theology and Scriptural Reasoning Among other goals the book seeks to offer glimpses into interfaith dialogues across the world and examine what Christians can learn from other religions and global contexts

How to Conquer the Barriers to Intercultural Dialogue Christiane Timmerman, Barbara Segaert, 2007-09 In a world society ruled by economic globalisation by political interests and theories such as Huntington s clash of civilisations that widen the gap between the North and the South the question should be asked of the role of the religion To what extent religion and politics can work together Can faith still be thought as a means of saving the world Considering that Christianity Islam and Judaism have much in common this collection of miscellanies wonders if these religions can join their forces for public benefit Senior and junior scholars from all over the world gathered for an interdisciplinary seminar analyse the contemporary international relationships and geopolitics through the prism of religion discussing whether it can provide practical solutions to solve conflicts and increase the respect of human rights

Evaluating Interreligious Peacebuilding and Dialogue Mohammed Abu-Nimer, Renáta Katalin Nelson, 2021-09-20 In the emerging fields of religious and interreligious peacebuilding the question of monitoring and evaluation is a challenging yet necessary process The need to develop comprehensive yet fitting evaluation models for religious and interreligious peacebuilding is not only important for donor interests but also critical as a means of documenting and learning for peacebuilders themselves Theories and best practices in monitoring and evaluation have become prevalent in many fields yet the amount of literature on evaluating intercultural and especially religious and interreligious projects remains scant in comparison This volume offers a unique contribution that not only looks at several of the challenges and implications faced by religious and interreligious peacebuilders but also provides concrete examples of new models and tools for monitoring and evaluating religious and interreligious peacebuilding projects In doing so this volume serves as a tool and point of reference for individuals and organizations developing and implementing interreligious dialogue and peacebuilding projects
