

THE CIVICS COURSE ACT

The Civics Course Act mandates a year-long high school civics course, including requirements to study the primary documents of the American founding and bans on action civics and the components of Critical Race Theory.²

MODEL LEGISLATIVE TEXT

Section A

Beginning in the 20XX-20XX school year, all public schools or charter schools located within this state shall require students to complete a regular year-long course of instruction in civics in grades nine, ten, eleven, or twelve.

1. This course shall instruct students in, at a minimum, study of and devotion to,
 - a. the intellectual sources of the United States' founding documents;
 - b. the political and military narrative of the causes and progress of the American Revolution;
 - c. the United States' founding documents and their original intent;
 - d. the Constitution of the United States, with emphasis on the Bill of Rights, and the Constitution of [state name];
 - e. the basic principles of the United States' republican form of government;
 - f. the historical development of the United States' republican form of government;
 - g. the structure, function, and processes of government institutions at the federal, state, and local levels; and
 - h. civic virtues exemplified in the lives of famous Americans.
2. Each school district shall craft its own curriculum for this year-long course of instruction in civics.

Section B

1. This year-long course of instruction in civics may not require, make part of such course, or award course grading or credit to, student work for, affiliation with, practicums in, or service learning in association with, any organization engaged in lobbying for legislation at the state or federal level, or in social or public policy advocacy.
2. This year-long course of instruction in civics may not require, make part of such course, or award course grading or credit to, lobbying for legislation at the state or federal level, or any practicum, or like activity, involving social or public policy advocacy.
3. This year-long course of instruction in civics may not compel any teacher to discuss current events or widely debated and currently controversial issues of public policy or social affairs.

² Consequences for noncompliance with this law should be determined by each state.
