Israel and the Covenants in New Testament Times Peter Williams, 2016-05-23 Second Edition Updated and Revised
A Bible student reference A New Testament prophecy of a falling away from truth into apostasy and lawlessness in the final generation before Jesus Christ returns in glory is being fulfilled now and is shortly to end Yet Christianity has overwhelmingly moved so far from its first century roots that it could not even recognise this or that Christ's return is therefore now almost upon us How and why this is the case is here explained thoroughly and logically with many examples directly from the word of God In God's saving plan for the world everyone must in time make a free will choice to become part of the Israel of God in order to access eternal life in the kingdom of God The route to take is the strait and narrow way Mat 7 13 14 that very few have so far found and it involves the biblical new and old covenants which both apply to this Israel Embark on this voyage only if you are willing to be challenged about some basic Christian preconceptions be a serious open minded Bible student and trust what the Bible teaches but remember that time is short What the Bible has taught me I see as both vital and urgent for our eternal salvation yet I know of no church or individual theologian who teaches what this book deals with in any substantive way Be prepared for major challenges to your understanding just as God has challenged me In the epistles Paul refers to two Israels whom he calls Israel after the flesh I Cor 10 18 and the Israel of God Gal 6 16 I focus mainly on the latter but I also explain an unexpected but critically important connection between them Dependent on the teaching nearly all Christian denominations either teach nothing at all on it or almost the opposite of what Scripture repeatedly showed me Looking back I find this absolutely staggering Very few Christians understand that the new covenant also only applies to Israel as I will clearly show I no longer believe that the NT New Testament can be fully understood without this extra Israel dimension Had I felt I could deliver this in a more light hearted way I would have done so but its implications are too awesome and fundamental to our eternal life prospects for that James Durham (1622-1658) Donald John MacLean, 2015-03-11 The free offer of the gospel has been a matter of significant debate within Reformed theology However despite this controversy Reformed theologians such as James Durham preached a gospel offer which was a sincere and free invitation from God to all to embrace Jesus Christ as Saviour This gospel offer expressed God's grace and goodness to all Donald MacLean argues that Durham's doctrinal position is representative of the Westminster Standards and embraced by his contemporaries and evidenced by the later disputes concerning the meaning of the teaching of the Westminster Confession of Faith Jesus, Revolutionary of the Poor Mark Bredin, 2017-11-06 Is Jesus relevant to the sufferings of the helpless the voiceless those dying of hunger those traumatized by violence people with learning difficulties In Matthew we see Jesus to be a man on the frontline battling against the forces that stop the non poor from living generously and the poorest of the poor living abundantly the way God intended This is Jesus as one who in his very being is an expression of God's wrath against human beings who live their lives as if creation is a battle zone where only the selfish and powerful flourish

Matthew's Jesus is outraged at the lethargy and apathy that permits non-poor people to live according to practices that lead so many to be excluded from the fruits of God's creation. But the Jesus found in this gospel is also one who teaches that God has created a world that is good to see; it is abundant as long as people live according to the dynamic order God has inwardly established in creation: one rooted in generosity, hospitality, love, self-sacrifice, righteousness, justice, Torah, and mercy.

Christ Crucified and Risen William Eltringham, 1771      Divine Ecosystem Christy Randazzo, 2025-10-14

In this book Randazzo develops new language to translate Quaker theological concepts which are rooted in the foundation of the tradition. Quaker theology has since its beginnings relied heavily on metaphors of Divine human interdependence and particularly creation metaphors related to the foundational concept of all Quaker theology: that of God within. Coupled with this inherent ecological focus, rooted deep within the tradition, is the peculiarly Quaker practice of journals, the vitally important practice of Quakers reflecting upon their own personal experiences in light of their theological import. Randazzo's theological narrative of liberal Quakerism creates clarity and structure without compromising the capacious breadth and depth of this distinctive tradition. Reflecting the traditional use of creation metaphors to express Quaker theological concepts, Randazzo proposes a new metaphor of ecosystem, new because the term was first used in 1935 to explain the interplay of the old threads underlying Quaker theology. In so doing, Randazzo helps readers understand the hope-filled richness of Quaker theology while offering space for the myriad ways Friends experience the sacred. The sources of Quaker theology work as a complex ecosystem of overlapping elements where none is primary but all interact with each other in inexplicable and unexpected ways: the individual and communal experience of the Divine, the testimony of the practices which demonstrate the truth of this experience, the values and practices of the community, Quaker interpretation of Divine revelation in both sacred stories as well as new ideas and concepts which evolve over time, and the doctrines which emerge as Quakers explore the way that these elements all intersect in the lives and stories of our communities.

The Covenant Crucified Douglas Gwyn, 2006-07-01

Doug Gwyn has researched and written extensively on early Quakers in 17th century England. His other books include Apocalypse of the Word and Seekers Found. He has taught at the Pendle Hill Quaker Study Center near Philadelphia and at Woodbrooke in Birmingham, England. Doug has also worked with the American Friends Service Committee and is Pastor of First Friends Church, Richmond, Indiana. The Covenant Crucified combines the scholarly and prophetic to compare covenant uniting people under the care of a transcendent God and contract uniting them primarily through secular visions of self-interest. This book, part of Doug Gwyn's trilogy on early Quaker history, is critical to our understanding of early Friends and how the movement changed in the first decades. Gwyn outlines the highly distinctive nature of the Quaker covenant of light and how that was transformed within a generation into a more worldly, contractual understanding. It is also a call to Quakers today to recover a sense of covenant for the journey ahead.
