Crabtrees Woman:

Crabtree's Woman Dave Etter,1972 Notable American Women, 1607-1950 Radcliffe College,1971 Vol 1 A F Vol 2 G O Vol 3 P Z modern period Woman's Home Companion ,1928 North Carolina Women Michele Gillespie,Sally G. McMillen,2014-02-15 North Carolina has had more than its share of accomplished influential women women who have expanded their sphere of influence or broken through barriers that had long defined and circumscribed their lives women such as Elizabeth Maxwell Steele the widow and tavern owner who supported the American Revolution Harriet Jacobs runaway slave abolitionist and author of Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl and Edith Vanderbilt and Katharine Smith Reynolds elite women who promoted women s equality This collection of essays examines the lives and times of pathbreaking North Carolina women from the late eighteenth century into the early twentieth century offering important new insights into the variety of North Carolina women s experiences across time place race and class and conveys how women were able to expand their considerable influence during periods of political challenge and economic hardship particularly over the course of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries These essays highlight North Carolina s progressive streak and its positive impact on women s education for white and black alike beginning in the antebellum period on through new opportunities that opened up in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries They explore the ways industrialization drew large numbers of women into the paid labor force for the first time and what the implications of this tremendous transition were they also examine the women who challenged traditional gender roles as political leaders and labor organizers as runaways and as widows The volume is especially attuned to differences in region within North Carolina delineating women s experiences in the eastern third of the state the piedmont and the western mountains Ladies' Home Companion ,1928 Woman's Missionary Friend ,1919 Troupers of the Gold Coast; Or, The Rise of Lotta Crabtree Constance Rourke,1928 Lotta Crabtree was very popular in San Francisco and in 1875 donated to the city a large water fountain a gathering place for people after the earthquake and fire of 1906 The book discusses other actresses in late 19th century San Francisco Women in American History Peg A. Lamphier,Rosanne Welch,2017-01-23 This four volume set documents the complexity and richness of women s contributions to American history and culture empowering all students by demonstrating a more populist approach to the past Based on the content of most textbooks it would be easy to reach the erroneous conclusion that women have not contributed much to America s history and development Nothing could be further from the truth Offering comprehensive coverage of women of a diverse range of cultures classes ethnicities religions and sexual identifications this four volume set identifies the many ways in which women have helped to shape and strengthen the United States This encyclopedia is organized into four chronological volumes with each volume further divided into three sections Each section features an overview essay and thematic essay as well as detailed entries on topics ranging from Lady Gaga to Ladybird Johnson Lucy Stone and Lucille Ball and from the International Ladies of Rhythm to the International

Ladies Garment Workers Union The set also includes a vast variety of primary documents such as personal letters public papers newspaper articles recipes and more These primary documents enhance users learning opportunities and enable readers to better connect with the subject matter

Women of Faith and the Quest for Spiritual Authenticity Sara Ashencaen Crabtree, 2021-01-31 Drawn from over fifty eight individual in depth qualitative interviews with women of faith in Malaysia and Britain Women of Faith and the Quest for Spiritual Authenticity is a multifaith multicultural and cross cultural comparative focus that explores women s religious expressions as derived from practising Buddhists Hindus Christians Muslims Jews Wiccans and Druids among others Despite social advances towards women s emancipation and the lacerating critiques from feminist theologians across the Abrahamic religions and beyond women s religious experiences remain submerged beneath the weight of patriarchal religious leadership and ongoing masculinised dogmatic interpretations Even feminism itself has yet to move the spiritual onto their main agenda of inequity in women s lives This extensive feminist research monograph challenges these exclusions to centre and amplify women s voices in speaking powerfully of their religious experiences interpretations and practices This is an ecumenical and entertaining ethnography where women s narratives and life stories ground faith as embodied personal painful vibrant diverse illuminating and shared This book will of interest not only to academics and students of the sociology of religion feminist and gender studies politics ethnicity and Southeast Asian studies but is equally accessible to the general reader broadly interested in faith and feminism
