God's Relentless Pursuit of His Beloved Fugitives William E. Richardson, In our efforts to navigate life s difficulties we often stray from the path into dark and dangerous woods Sometimes the challenges divert us other times our desire to avoid difficulties creates the detour Either way we stumble into the brambles where we become bruised and lost Worse in that wilderness we come to feel like fugitives Confronted by our inability or unwillingness to answer God s invitation we surrender instead to an ancient human urge we flee further into the shadows We wish to hide from His gaze which we fear we cannot endure Or we seek to escape His calling which we are convinced we cannot live up to Yet the Hound of Heaven as the poet Francis Thompson once observed is hot on our heels Regardless of why we may run however fast we flee and no matter how unwanted our straying may make us feel God remains nearby His pursuit of us is relentless His love for us is unquenchable Harken to the Hound s call as you walk in the footsteps of Biblical brothers and sisters Seek your own response to His eternal invitation as you rediscover the powerful promise of Romans 8 38 39 For I am sure that nothing will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord The Manchester Maze Christopher Leece, 2025-12-13 The Manchester Maze Christopher s life is a maze of challenges Growing up on a tough Manchester estate in the 1980s he faced bullying poverty and the lure of gangs adventures hardship and Humour Finding a Way Out of the Working Class Manchester
