Eva Magnusson, Jeanne Marecek

Constructing Panic The Discourse Of Agoraphobia:

Constructing Panic Lisa Capps,Elinor Ochs,1995 Offering a novel analysis of a patient s experience of agoraphobia this collaboration between a clinical psychologist and a linguist proposes a view of agoraphobia as a communicative disorder It opens up potential for linguistic and narrative analysis by revealing the roots of panic and by establishing a framework for therapeutic intervention

Reinventing Identities Laurel A. Sutton,1999 Doing Interview-based Qualitative Research Eva Magnusson,Jeanne Marecek,2015-10-01 For many students the experience of learning about and using qualitative methods can be bewildering This book is an accessible step by step guide to conducting interview based qualitative research projects The authors discuss the hows and whys of qualitative research showing readers the practices as well as the principles behind them The book first describes how to formulate research questions suited to qualitative inquiry It then discusses in detail how to select and invite research participants into a study and how to design and carry out good interviews It next presents several ways to analyze interviews and provides readers with many worked examples of analyses It also discusses how to synthesize findings and how to present them Doing Interview based Qualitative Research equips readers in disciplines such as psychology sociology education counseling nursing and public health with the knowledge and skills necessary to embark on their own projects

A Companion to Linguistic Anthropology Alessandro Duranti,2008-04-15 A Companion to Linguistic Anthropology provides a series of in depth explorations of key concepts and approaches by some of the scholars whose work constitutes the theoretical and methodological foundations of the contemporary study of language as culture Provides a definitive overview of the field of linguistic anthropology comprised of original contributions by leading scholars in the field Summarizes past and contemporary research across the field and is intended to spur students and scholars to pursue new paths in the coming decades Includes a comprehensive bibliography of over 2000 entries designed as a resource for anyone seeking a guide to the literature of linguistic anthropology

Living Narrative Elinor Ochs,Professor of Anthropology Elinor Ochs,Lisa Capps,2009-06-01 This pathbreaking book looks at everyday storytelling as a twofold phenomenon a response to our desire for coherence but also to our need to probe and acknowledge the enigmatic aspects of experience Letting us listen in on dinner table conversation prayer and gossip Elinor Ochs and Lisa Capps develop a way of understanding the seemingly contradictory nature of everyday narrative as a genre that is not necessarily homogeneous and as an activity that is not always consistent but consistently serves our need to create selves and communities Focusing on the ways in which narrative is co constructed and on the variety of moral stances embodied in conversation the authors draw out the instructive inconsistencies of these collaborative narratives whose contents and ordering are subject to dispute flux and discovery In an eloquent last chapter written as Capps was waging her final battle with cancer they turn to unfinished narratives those stories that will never have a comprehensible end With a hybrid perspective part humanities part social science their book captures these complexities and fathoms the intricate and potent narratives that live within and among us Pathologies of Modern Space Kathryn Milun,2013-10-18 Pathologies of Modern Space traces the rise of agoraphobia and ties its astonishing growth to the emergence of urban modernity In contrast to traditional medical conceptions of the disorder Kathryn Milun shows that this anxiety is closely related to the emergence of empty urban space homogenous space such as malls and parking lots stripped of memory and tactile features Pathologies of Modern Space is a compelling cultural analysis of the history of medical treatments for agoraphobia and what they can tell us about the normative expectations for the public self in the modern city Children, Childhood and Everyday Life Mariane Hedegaard,Karin Aronsson,Charlotte Højholt,Oddbjørg Skjær Ulvik,2012-05-01 Children live their lives across various social settings including homes kindergartens schools and different kinds of institutions The different contributions of this book focus on children s perspectives and on how children learn and develop through taking part in activities in social communities such as families peer groups classrooms and day care institutions This collection illustrate different ways of dealing with varying social contexts and the research presented involves questions about children s world making anchored in children s daily lives The studies are inspired by Vygotsky s theory of development 1998 as well as childhood sociology One of the aims has been to problematice time change continuity developmental trajectories and transitions in order to identify novel ways of discussing different trajectories through childhood and youth that is development Anthropological Linguistics ,1999 Discourse Studies: Discourse as structure and process Teun A. van Dijk,1997 What are the structures of discourse and what are the functions of these structures in the communicative context This volume explains how and why discourse is organized at various levels The multidisciplinary contributions illustrate that discourse analysis goes far beyond the linguistic answer of designing grammars and goes hand in hand with the study of their uses and functions in the social context Comprehensive and accessible the volume covers a huge variety of discourse genres including written and spoken and storytelling and argumentation The chapters also illustrate the necessity to examine the mental processes of the language users How do people go about producing understanding and remembering text or talk

Pathology and the Postmodern Dwight Fee,2000-02-11 This is a wonderful volume powerfully written timely insightful and filled with major pieces the passion intellectual rigor and sense of history found here promises to shape this field in the decades to come This volume sets the agenda for the future Norman K Denzin University of Illinois A beautifully crafted manuscript which re invigorates the rather stale debate between the traditionalists and the anti psychiatry schools of thought For all those working in mental health arenas the journeying through this text will be highly rewarding indeed Stick with it Mental Health Care This is a book which will appeal to those interested in theoretical debates rather than to practitioners who may find it heavy weather if they have not had the time or resources to engage with what are often quite difficult and often dense writings British Journal of Social Work This book present s a clarity that is vivid This book would be a good place for psychiatrists to start British Journal of Psychiatry Pathology and the Postmodern explores the relationship between mental distress and social constructionism using new work from eminent scholars in the fields of sociology psychology and philosophy The authors address how specific cultural economic and historical forces converge in contemporary psychiatry and psychology how new syndromes subjectivities and identities are being constructed and deconstructed in technological culturally mediated and hyper reflexive contexts and what new critiques of positivism and new understandings of pathology seem viable given these still emerging scenarios Building upon work in such areas as labelling theory feminist studies linguistics and post structuralism the twelve chapters engage the cultural historical and political conditions that should be implicated in our understanding of contemporary mental suffering
