Consumer Law:

Enforcement and Effectiveness of Consumer Law Hans-W. Micklitz, Geneviève Saumier, 2018-07-06 The book focusses on the enforcement of consumer law in order to identify commonalities and best practices across nations It is composed of twenty eight contributions from national rapporteurs to the IACL Congress in Montevideo in 2016 and the introductory comparative general report The national contributors are drawn from across the globe with representation from Africa 1 Asia 5 Europe 15 Oceania 2 and the Americas 5 The general report proposes a general introduction to the question of enforcement and effectiveness of consumer law It then proceeds to identify the variety of ways in which national legislatures approach this question and the diversity of mechanisms put in place to address it The general report uses examples drawn from the reports to illustrate common approaches and to identify more original or distinct unique approaches taking into account the reported strengths and weaknesses of each The general report consistently points readers to particular national reports on specific issues inviting readers to consult these individual contributions for more details The national contributions deal with the following areas the national legal framework for consumer protection the general design of the enforcement mechanism the number and characteristics of consumer complaints and disputes the use of courts and specialized agencies for the enforcement of consumer law the role of consumer organizations and of private regulation in the enforcement of consumer law the place of collective redress mechanism and of alternative dispute resolution modes the sanctions for breaches of consumer law and the nature of external relations or cooperation with other countries or international organizations These enriching national and international perspectives offer a comprehensive overview of the current state of consumer law around the globe The Making of Consumer Law and Policy in Europe Hans-W.

Micklitz, 2021-11-04 This book analyses the founding years of consumer law and consumer policy in Europe It combines two dimensions the making of national consumer law and the making of European consumer law and how both are intertwined The chapters on Germany Italy the Nordic countries and the United Kingdom serve to explain the economic and the political background which led to different legal and policy approaches in the then old Member States from the 1960s onwards The chapter on Poland adds a different layer the one of a former socialist country with its own consumer law and how joining the EU affected consumer law at the national level The making of European consumer law started in the 1970s rather cautiously but gradually the European Commission took an ever stronger position in promoting not only European consumer law but also in supporting the building of the European Consumer Organisation BEUC the umbrella organisation of the national consumer bodies The book unites the early protagonists who were involved in the making of consumer law in Europe Guido Alpa Ludwig Kr mer Ewa Letowska Hans W Micklitz Klaus Tonner Iain Ramsay and Thomas Wilhelmsson supported by the younger generation Aneta Wiewi rowska Domagalska Mateusz Grochowski and Koen Docter who reconstructs the history of BEUC Niklas Olsen and Thomas Roethe analyse the construction of this policy field from a historical and sociological perspective This book offers a unique opportunity to understand a legal and political field that of consumer law and policy which plays a fundamental role in our contemporary societies

Disruption, Innovation and Re-alignment in UK Consumer Law and Policy Christian Twigg-Flesner, James Devenney, 2026-02-19 This book sets out the future directions for UK consumer law and policy After decades of EU driven development the continuous improvement of UK consumer law and policy has stalled since Brexit Yet there are major challenges including the progressive digitalisation of the consumer environment the need to reconcile sustainability with consumption and the need for better crisis resilience alongside more specific concerns such as better enforcement or subscription contracts The disruption caused by Brexit demands a comprehensive solution to ensure that UK consumer law and policy remains current and robust rather than becoming moribund It also presents an opportunity for realigning UK consumer law and policy towards a consumer centric focus and to develop innovative solutions to contemporary consumer challenges With original contributions from leading consumer law scholars the book shows how the UK could develop in response to both major and specific challenges Topics include a historical perspective on consumer law consumer law reform the implications of Brexit vulnerability changing paradigms challenges in the context of financial services and digital consumer law and enforcement National Consumer Protection Hearings United States.
