Literature and politics in the English Reformation Tom Betteridge,2017-10-03 This book is a study of the English Reformation as a political and literary event Focusing on an eclectic group of texts unified by their explication of the key elements of the cultural history of the period 1510 1580 the book unravels the political poetic and religious themes of the era Through readings of work by Edmund Spenser William Tyndale Sir Thomas More and John Skelton as well as less celebrated Tudor writers Betteridge surveys pre Henrician literature as well as Henrician Reformation texts and delineates the literature of the reigns of Edward VI Mary Tudor and Elizabeth I Ultimately the book argues that this literature and the era should not be understood simply on the basis of conflicts between Protestantism and Catholicism but rather that Tudor culture must be seen as fractured between emerging confessional identities and marked by a conflict between those who embraced confessionalism and those who rejected it This important study will be fascinating reading for students and researchers in early modern English literature and history William Touris OFM, The Contemplacioun of Synnaris Alasdair A. MacDonald,J. Craig McDonald,2022-05-20 The Contemplacioun of Synnaris by the Observant Franciscan William Touris written c 1494 and evidently intended for King James IV of Scotland is a significant and much copied work of Older Scots although the earliest surviving witness is the English print by Wynkyn de Worde 1499 The Contemplacioun was the very first work of Older Scots literature to be translated and to be printed The poem s seven sections comprise a course of meditations for Holy Week Richard Fox bishop of Durham commissioned the English print in which the stanzas were preceded by Latin sententiae biblical medieval and ancient The work retained sufficient interest to re emerge in separate versions in both Scotland 1568 and England 1578 drastically revised for Protestant readers The British Bibliographer Sir Egerton Brydges,1814 Dictionary of National Biography ,1897 Dictionary of National Biography Leslie Stephen,Sir Sidney Lee,1897 The Dictionary of National Biography Leslie Stephen,Sir Sidney Lee,1917 The Dictionary of National Biography, Founded in 1882 by George Smith ,1922 The Dictionary of National Biography Leslie Stephen,Sir Sidney Lee,1968 Christie's Since the War, 1945-1958 Denys Sutton,1959 Calliope's Classroom Annette Harder,Alasdair A. MacDonald,G. J. Reinink,2007 The present volume contains twelve new essays on didactic verse with a broad time sweep ranging from the most ancient literature Sumeria through to the early modern age seventeenth century England Considered collectively the contents illustrate the transmission of this important literary kind from Ancient to Modern times and from east to west from south to north The Romantic age led to the lyric being seen as the dominant poetical mode and today it has become almost axiomatic to view the chief function of poetry as the articulation of the thoughts and emotions of the individual a concomitant assumption is that the essential quality of poetry is the aesthetic However in other cultures and in earlier times things were very different and the didactic was long accorded a secure place as one of several prominent literary modes While it is difficult to give a precise definition of the didactic it may be said to be characteristically concerned with knowledge and wisdom where the latter term inclines toward moral and religious instruction and the former toward information both practical and encyclopaedic The present contributions deal with the functioning of didactic verse in such widely diverse areas as education in school mnemotechnics rhetoric style and composition farming grammar the natural world cultural identity liturgy and worship aetiology philosophy politics intertextuality man as microcosm the training of the soul gender awareness Truly the classroom presided over by Calliope the chief of muses is no arid intellectual forcing house but rather a place where the resources of rhetoric learning and imagination are felicitously combined in the training of the individual mind and the betterment of society in general
