Opportunity ,1932 World's Great Men of Color, Volume I J.A. Rogers,2011-05-17 The classic definitive title on the great Black figures in world history beginning in antiquity and reaching into the modern age World s Great Men of Color is the comprehensive guide to the most noteworthy Black personalities in world history and their significance J A Rogers spent the majority of his lifetime pioneering the field of Black studies with his exhaustive research on the major names in Black history whose contributions or even very existence have been glossed over Well written and informative World s Great Men of Color is an enlightening and important historical work Environmental Entanglements Kirk B. Sides,Assistant Professor of English Kirk B Sides,2025-12-05 Environmental Entanglements explores a long history of ecological thought in African literature and film Beginning with the start of the 20th Century the book focuses on authors who explore ecological relationships between land and people from Mofolo to Plaatje Okorafor

Victorian Material Culture Adelene Buckland,2022-07-14 From chatelaines to whale blubber ice making machines to stained glass this six volume collection will be of interest to the scholar student or general reader alike anyone who has an urge to learn more about Victorian things The set brings together a range of primary sources on Victorian material culture and discusses the most significant developments in material history from across the nineteenth century The collection will demonstrate the significance of objects in the everyday lives of the Victorians and addresses important questions about how we classify and categorise nineteenth century things The fourth volume will look at raw materials that were handled and used by Victorians including blubber and coal

Desiderata ,1929 Empire of Religion David Chidester,2014-03-19 How is knowledge about religion and religions produced and how is that knowledge authenticated and circulated David Chidester seeks to answer these questions in Empire of Religion documenting and analyzing the emergence of a science of comparative religion in Great Britain during the second half of the nineteenth century and its complex relations to the colonial situation in southern Africa In the process

Chidester provides a counterhistory of the academic study of religion an alternative to standard accounts that have failed to link the field of comparative religion with either the power relations or the historical contingencies of the imperial project In developing a material history of the study of religion Chidester documents the importance of African religion the persistence of the divide between savagery and civilization and the salience of mediations imperial colonial and indigenous in which knowledge about religions was produced He then identifies the recurrence of these mediations in a number of case studies including Friedrich Max Müller s dependence on colonial experts H Rider Haggard and John Buchan s fictional accounts of African religion and W E B Du Bois s studies of African religion By reclaiming these theorists for this history Chidester shows that race rather than theology was formative in the emerging study of religion in Europe and North America Sure to be controversial Empire of Religion is a major contribution to the field of comparative religious studies Imagining Africa Lindy Stiebel,2001-06-30 Best known as the author of such works as King Solomon s Mines and She H Rider Haggard was one of the most popular writers of the late Victorian era and his works continue to be influential today To a large degree his novels are captivating because of his image of Africa and an understanding of his representation of the African landscape is central to a critical reading of his works This book argues that Haggard created in his African romances a formulaic ideological geography which provided a canvas onto which he projected his desires and fears both personal and political as well as those of his age The first full length study of land and landscape in Haggard s African romances this book approaches his construction of an imaginary African landscape as a product of late Victorian wishful thinking about Africa analyzing his African topography as a vast Eden a wilderness a dream underworld a home to ancient white civilizations and a sexualized metaphor for the human body While the work looks primarily at his pre 1892 romances which were his most powerful it also gives attention to his nonfiction and unpublished papers Because Haggard s writings embodied the spirit of his age this book is an essential guide to late Victorian concepts of Africa colonization and the British Empire Interfaces Between the Oral and the Written Flora Veit-Wild,Alain Ricard,2005 In the African context there exists the myth that orality means tradition Written and oral verbal art are often regarded as dichotomies one excluding the other While orature is confused with tradition literature is ascribed to modernity Furthermore local languages are ignored and literature is equated with writing in foreign languages The contributions in this volume take issue with such preconceptions and explore the multiple ways in which literary and oral forms interrelate and subvert each other giving birth to new forms of artistic expression They emphasize the local agency of the African poet and writer which resists the global commodification of literature through the international bestseller lists of the cultural industry The first section traces the movement from oral to written texts which in many cases coincides with a switch from African to European languages But as the essays in the section on New Literary Languages make clear in other cases a true philological work is accomplished in the African language to create a new written and literary medium Through the mixing of languages in the cities such as the Sheng spoken in Kenya or the bilinguality of a

writer such as Cheik Aliou Ndao Senegal new idioms for literary expressions evolve The use of new media technology or music stimulate the emergence of new genres such as Taarab in East Africa radio poetry in Yoruba and Hausa or Rap in the Senegal as is shown in the section on Forms of New Orality It is a great achievement of this second volume of Versions and Subversions in African Literatures that it assembles contributions by scholars from the anglophone and the francophone world and that it covers literary production in a broad spectrum of languages English French Hausa Sheng Sotho Spanish Swahili Wolof and Yoruba Some of the authors and cultural practitioners treated in detail are Mobolajir Adenubi Birago Diop Boubacar Boris Diop David Maillu Thomas Mofolo Cheik Aliou Ndao Donato Ndongo Bidyogo Hubert Ogunde Shaaban Robert Wole Soyinka Ibrahim Yaro Yahaya and S nouvo Agbota Zinsou New Francophone African and Caribbean Theatres John Conteh-Morgan, 2010-08-03 John Conteh Morgan explores the multiple ways in which African and Caribbean theatres have combined aesthetic ceremonial experimental and avant garde practices in order to achieve sharp critiques of the nationalist and postnationalist state and to elucidate the concerns of the francophone world More recent changes have introduced a transnational dimension replacing concerns with national and ethnic solidarity in favor of irony and self reflexivity New Francophone African and Caribbean Theatres places these theatres at the heart of contemporary debates on global cultural and political practices and offers a more finely tuned understanding of performance in diverse diasporic networks Bantu Studies and General South African Anthropology, 1929 Includes music Print Culture in Southern Africa Caroline Davis, Archie Dick, Elizabeth le Roux, Dennis Walder, 2021-07-29 Print Culture in Southern Africa is concerned with the institutions and processes informing textual production circulation and consumption in the region over a broad historical period from the late 18th century to the present day The book is organised around three closely related themes Firstly it presents original research into the formation of reading publics and the impact of reading cultures by uncovering obscure but important reading communities and circuits of book distribution and reception A second theme is the relationship between print and politics with a particular focus on the networks of power how control over the production and circulation of printed books has shaped literary and cultural development The third theme is transnational print culture and how the control exercised by publishers in Europe and America has shaped literature and society in southern Africa Drawing together interdisciplinary research and diverse methodologies the collection encompasses a range of perspectives including literary studies anthropology publishing studies the history of the book and art history and many of the chapters are based on previously unexamined archives and collections The volume contributes to current debates and opens up new and exciting ways of furthering the study of postcolonial literature and African book history The chapters included in this book were originally published in the Journal of Southern African Studies Books for Africa, 1931 Research in African Literatures, 1987 United Empire, 1931
