The Chalet School and the Island Elinor M. Brent-Dyer,2023-07-25 Elinor M Brent Dyer was born Gladys Eleanor May Dyer on April 6 1894 in South Shields in the northeast of England She wrote over a hundred books of children s literature during her life From lower middle class roots she went to a small private school and became a teacher after attending the City of Leeds Training College As a teacher she worked at both public and private schools and even as a governess She had an interest in the theater and her first book Gerry Goes to School the first in her La Rochelle series was written in 1922 for the child actress Hazel Bainbridge About this time inspired by a vacation to the Austrian Alps she wrote The School at the Chalet in 1923 the first in her Chalet School series Brent Dyer continued to teach and tried rather unsuccessfully to run her own school from 1938 to 1948 After this she quit teaching but continued writing until her death on September 20 1969 in Redhill Surrey The Chalet School and the Island ,1977 The Chalet School and the Island ,1967 British and American School Stories, 1910-1960 Nancy G. Rosoff,Stephanie Spencer,2019-02-25 This book examines school and college fiction for girls in Britain and the United States written in the first half of the twentieth century to explore the formation and ideologies of feminine identity Nancy G Rosoff and Stephanie Spencer develop a transnational framework that recognises how both constructed and essential femininities transcend national boundaries The book discusses the significance and performance of female friendship across time and place which is central to the development of the genre and how it functioned as an important means of informal education Stories by Jessie Graham Flower Pauline Lester Alice Ross Colver Elinor Brent Dyer and Dorita Fairlie Bruce are set within their historical context and then used to explore aspects of sociability authority responsibility domesticity and possibility The distinctiveness of this book stems from the historical analysis of these sources which have so far primarily been treated by literary scholars within their national context Winner of the History of Education Society Anne Bloomfield Prize for the best book on history of education published in English 2017 19 From Morality to Mayhem Julian Lovelock,2018-10-25 The stories we read as children are the ones that stay with us the longest and from the nineteenth century until the 1950s stories about schools held a particular fascination Many will remember the goings on at such earnest establishments as Tom Brown s Rugby St Dominic s Greyfriars the Chalet School Malory Towers and Linbury Court In the second part of the twentieth century with more liberal social attitudes and the advent of secondary education for all these moral tales lost their appeal and the school story very nearly died out More recently however a new generation of compromised schoolboy and schoolgirl heroes Pennington Tyke Tiler Harry Potter and Millie Roads have given it a new and challenging relevance Focusing mainly on novels written for young people From Morality to Mayhem charts the fall and rise of the school story from the grim accounts of Victorian times to the magic and mayhem of our own age In doing so it considers how fictional schools not only reflect but sometimes influence real life This captivating study will appeal to those interested in children s literature and education both students and the general
