Challenge Of Comparative Literature:

The Challenge of Comparative Literature Claudio Guillén,1993 In this work Claudio Guillen meditates on the elusive field of comparative literature and its vicissitudes since the early 19th century The Challenge of Comparative Literature

Claudio Guillén,1993 Polichinelle ,18?? The challenge of comparative literature and other addresses, ed Werner Paul Friederich, The Challenge of Comparative Literature, and Other Addresses Werner Paul Friederich,1970

The Challenge of Comparative Literature Reingard Nethersole,1984 The Challenge of Comparative Literature, and Other Addresses Werner Paul Friederich,1970 Comparative Literature in Europe Nikol Dziub,Frédérique Toudoire-Surlapierre,2019-01-03 Thanks to its historical theoretical and methodological dimensions this book is unique both in Europe and in the USA It brings together researchers from across Europe to explain how comparative literature works both on an institutional and a technical level in the country in which they teach The contributions also define the characteristics of European comparative literature on a continental level From Austria to Ukraine by way of Belgium Estonia Finland France Ireland Lithuania Luxembourg Macedonia Poland Portugal Romania Slovakia Spain and Switzerland this book offers an expansive panorama placing great emphasis on usually invisible countries Moreover it relates both to the postcolonial and post Soviet present and to the future of comparative literature it is a handbook but also a laboratory The Routledge Concise History of World Literature Theo D'haen,2013-03 This remarkably broad and informative book offers an introduction to and overview of World Literature Tracing the term from its earliest roots and situating it within a number of relevant contexts from postcolonialism to postmodernism this book is the ideal guide to an increasingly popular and important term in literary studies It is accessible and engaging and will be invaluable to students of world literature comparative literature translation and postcolonial studies and anyone with an interest in these or related topics

Challenge and Continuity Margaret Buckley,Brian Buckley,2004 Challenge and Continuity is the first full length attempt to map an important feature of nineteenth and twentieth century literature the thematic novel It analyses it first in D H Lawrence revealing how in The Rainbow and Women in Love the psychology of the characters is brought into a wider social and ideological context that generates their controlling themes Having defined an alternative tradition exemplified by George Eliot and Tolstoy focused primarily on individual development it examines how that kind of interest was aligned in the nineteenth century with the thematic in a loose fashion by Charlotte Bront Turgenev Hardy and Wells and more precisely by Stendhal Flaubert and Emily Bront Challenge and Continuity goes on to identify the core of the thematic tradition in the work of Dickens Hawthorne Melville Dostoevsky and Conrad It is then revealed as a distinguishing feature of modernism in Ford Forster Joyce and Woolf with continuations into Huxley Orwell and Beckett With its complex of well researched links over a very wide area this book should appeal to scholars and students alike and also to the general reader with some knowledge of the field Studying Transcultural Literary History Gunilla Lindberg-Wada,2012-03-12 In our globalised world literature is less and less confined to national spaces Europe centred frameworks for literary studies have become insufficient academics are increasingly called upon to address matters of cultural difference In this unique volume leading scholars discuss the critical and methodical challenges that these developments pose to the writing of literary history What is the object of literary history What is the meaning of the term world literature How do we compare different cultural systems of genres How do we account theoretically for literary transculturation What are the implications of postcolonial studies for the discipline of comparative literature Ranging in focus from the Persian epic of Majnun Layla and Zulu praise poetry to South Korean novels and Brazilian antropofagismo the essays offer a concise overview of these and related questions Their aim is not to reach a consensus on these matters They show instead what is at stake in the emergent field of global comparatism

A History of World Literature Theo D'haen,2024-05-29 A History of World Literature is a fully revised and expanded edition of The Routledge Concise History of World Literature 2012 This remarkably broad and informative book offers an introduction to world literature Tracing the term from its earliest roots and situating it within a number of relevant contexts from postcolonialism decoloniality ecocriticism and book circulation Theo D haen in ten tightly argued but richly detailed chapters examines the return of the term world literature and its changing meaning Goethe s concept of Weltliteratur and how this relates to current debates theories and theorists who have had an impact on world literature and how world literature is taught around the world By examining how world literature is studied around the globe this book is the ideal guide to an increasingly popular and important term in literary studies It is accessible and engaging and will be invaluable to students of world literature comparative literature translation postcolonial and decoloniality studies and materialist approaches and to anyone with an interest in these or related topics
