John Field

Challenge Of Competence Professionalism Through Vocational Education And Training:

The Challenge of Competence Phil Hodkinson, 1995 The articles focus on the caring professions of teaching youth work social work and community care and examine critically the design and operation of competence based approaches in the contemporary British context

The Challenge of Competence Phil Hodkinson, 1994-11-10 Offers a range of related perspectives on competence issues which should be of interest to policy makers practitioners academics and researchers in the fields of teaching social work and youth and community work The book includes comparisons with vocational education initiatives in Europe

Competence-based Vocational and Professional Education Martin Mulder, 2016-09-08 This book presents a comprehensive overview of extant literature on competence based vocational and professional education since the introduction of the competence concept in the 1950s To structure the field the book distinguishes between three approaches to defining competence based on 1 functional behaviourism 2 integrated occupationalism and 3 situated professionalism It also distinguishes between two ways of operationalizing competence 1 behaviour oriented generic and 2 task oriented specific competence Lastly it identifies three kinds of competencies related to 1 specific activities 2 known jobs and 3 the unknown future Competence for the unknown future must receive more attention as our world is rapidly evolving and there are many global challenges which call for innovation and a profound transformation of policies and practices The book presents a range of different approaches to competence based education and demonstrates that competence based education is a worldwide innovation which is institutionalized in various ways It presents the major theories and policies specific components of educational systems such as recognition accreditation modelling and assessment and developments in discipline oriented and transversal competence domains The book concludes by synthesizing the different perspectives with the intention to contribute to further improving vocational and professional education policy and practice

Joao Santos Deputy Head of Unit C5 Vocational Training and Adult Education Directorate General for Employment Social Affairs and Inclusion European Commission This comprehensive work on competence based education led by Martin Mulder provides an excellent and timely contribution to the current debate on a New Skills Agenda for Europe and the challenge of bridging the employment and education and training worlds closer together This book will influence our work aimed at improving the relevance of vocational education to support initial and continuing vocational education and training policy and practice aimed at strengthening the key competencies for the 21st century

Prof Dr Reinhold Weiss Deputy President and Head of the Research Federal Institute for Vocational Education and Training BIBB Bonn Germany This book illustrates that the idea and concept of competence is not only a buzzword in educational debates but key to innovative pedagogical thinking as well as educational practice

Prof Dr Johanna Lasonen College of Education University of South Florida Tampa USA Competence based Vocational and Professional Education is one of the most important multi disciplinary book in education and training This path breaking book offers a timely rich and global perspective on the field The book is a good resource for practitioners policymakers and researchers The Challenge of Competence Phil Hodkinson,1998-08-21 Offers a range of related perspectives on competence issues which should be of interest to policy makers practitioners academics and researchers in the fields of teaching social work and youth and community work The book includes comparisons with vocational education initiatives in Europe Education, Training, and the Future of Work Michael Flude,Sandy Sieminski,1999 This volume focuses on the recent changes in the late 1990s in education and training policy mainly in the UK Education, Training and the Future of Work II Mike Flude,Sandy Sieminski,2013-10-18 This volume focuses on the recent changes in education and training policy mainly in the UK The considerable developments of past years and the ways in which they have affected both education and training are examined The contributors analyse the methods by which we educate our workforce and look closely at the kind of training now offered to those in work The chapters in this reader cover the role of the state how economic factors influence education national education and training policy the political factor Other countries including Germany are looked at and there is reflection on the ways in which the new industry led qualifications such as NVQs have fared There is careful analysis as to how much the political climate of the time influenced developments There is thorough research to back up claims made throughout the book and many practical examples are referred to What emerges is an incisive examination of current trends in education and the workplace Resources in Education ,1996-08 Education and Training 14-19 Rob Halsall,Michael Cockett,2014-04-08 This is a review of the chaotic provision that exists in the UK regarding education and training for courses for the 14 19 age group The authors set current provision in an historical context and then examine inconsistencies and paradoxes in recent policy directions European Dimensions John Field,1998 Field addresses the European Union's desire for a unified approach to education and its content exploring the origin of this interest the tensions that underlie the policies and its impact at national level A Selected Bibliography of Competence-based Education and Training (CBET) K. Moti Gokulsing,Cornel DaCosta,Gilbert Jessup,1997 This bibliography concentrates exclusively on the emergence of the competence based and outcomes based model of education and training since 1985 upon which several national programs are now based It is a selection of the more significant publications in a growing and increasingly important body of work within education and training Resources in Education ,1997 Convergence and Divergence in European Education and Training Systems Andy Green,Tom Leney,Alison Wolf,1999 This book offers a unique picture of education and training in the EU between the early 1980s and the late 1990s It synthesizes a wealth of research policy documents and original data from the fifteen Member States and from the European Commission The advent of the Single Market and of the euro have focused attention on economic integration in Europe while discussions of globalization also emphasize common trends and economic convergence Convergence and Divergence in European Education and Training Systems demonstrates that while European education and training systems are responding to powerful general trends they remain highly distinctive with no obvious movement towards a single common pattern The Role of EU Programmes and Approaches to Modularisation in Vocational Education: Fragmentation Or Integration? Hubert Ertl,2002 Business Education and Training: New wine in old bottles ,1997 Knowledge and Nationhood James Avis,1996 This text examines the implications of government policy for the curriculum the professionalism of educational practitioners and the training and career options of young people It argues for a new educational agenda which recognizes the importance of intellectual investment and innovation in all areas of educational provision and which addresses the profound changes taking place in the relationship between national and global citizenship The text also includes a critique of New Right policies Music in Schools and Teacher Education Samuel Leong,1997 Foundations of Workforce Education Ernest W. Brewer,Anthony C. Campbell,Gregory C. Petty,2000 Teachers' Research ,1998 Career Information Center: Employment trends and master index ,2002 New Directions in Professional Higher Education Tom Bourner,Tim Katz,David Watson,2000 This text exemplifies the growing involvement of universities in professional education at its highest level It also demonstrates the increasing importance of education for the professions in the work of universities
