Champion Times: Yorkshire County Cricket Club 1959-1968 Fred Trueman, Don Mosey, 1994-12-31 British Sport - A Bibliography to 2000 Richard Cox, 2014-02-04 Volume two of a bibliography documenting all that has been written in the English language on the history of sport and physical education in Britain It lists all secondary source material including reference works in a classified order to meet the needs of the sports historian Cricket in America, 1710-2000 P. David Sentance, 2006-03-16 Cricket was played in Virginia in 1710 and was enjoyed on Georgia plantations in 1737 Teams representing New York and Philadelphia faced each other as early as 1838 By 1865 Philadelphia was considered the best cricket playing city in the United States competing against Canadian English and Australian teams from 1890 to 1920 This 30 year span was essential to the formation of America s sports identity and by its end while the sport of baseball drew increasing attention the game of cricket moved from being the game of America s aristocrats to a safe haven for America s nonwhite immigrants who were excluded from baseball because of Jim Crow laws Here the game s unique multi ethnic religious and cultural tradition in the United States is fully explored The author explains cricket s ties to the beginnings of baseball and covers the ways in which the game continues to play an important role in America s inner cities British Sport: Local histories Richard William Cox, 2003 Volume three of a bibliography documenting all that has been written in the English language on the history of sport and physical education in Britain It lists all secondary source material including reference works in a classified order to meet the needs of the sports historian Champion Times Fred Trueman, Don Mosey, 1994-01-01 A Game Divided: Triumphs and troubles in Yorkshire cricket in the 1920s Jeremy Lonsdale, 2020-11-01 Between 1922 and 1925 Yorkshire County Cricket Club won the County Championship four years in a row making it one of the most successful sides ever in the history of the English county game A line up which included Wilfred Rhodes Percy Holmes Herbert Sutcliffe Roy Kilner George Macaulay and Maurice Leyland dominated English cricket for much of the decade taking a highly professional approach to the game Unsurprisingly they were heroes to many but despite this success the side was at times unpopular and the subject of trenchant criticism A Game Divided takes as its starting point the events during the match between Yorkshire and Middlesex at Sheffield in July 1924 which provoked a falling out between the counties These events and how they were portrayed shine a light on many of the divisions in English cricket of the time between north and south amateur and professional employer and employee and between different perspectives on sportsmanship and the style in which the game should be played The book looks at the triumphs and troubles that shaped Yorkshire cricket in the decade and asks just how great was this side of match winners Yorkshire County Cricket Club Mick Pope, Paul E. Dyson, 2007-05 Re live the significant matches in the history of county cricket in Yorkshire From the first match against Norfolk in 1833 through to the epic win against Leicestershire in 2005 this volume recalls the thrills and spills of fifty memorable encounters
