A People's History of London Lindsey German, John Rees, 2012-06-19 In the eyes of Britain's heritage industry London is the traditional home of empire monarchy and power an urban wonderland for the privileged where the vast majority of Londoners feature only to applaud in the background Yet for nearly 2000 years the city has been a breeding ground for radical ideas home to thinkers heretics and rebels from John Wycliffe to Karl Marx It has been the site of sometimes violent clashes that changed the course of history the Levellers doomed struggle for liberty in the aftermath of the Civil War the silk weavers match girls and dockers who crusaded for workers rights and the Battle of Cable Street where East Enders took on Oswald Mosley's Black Shirts

A People's History of London journeys to a city of pamphleteers agitators exiles and revolutionaries where millions of people have struggled in obscurity to secure a better future

London Boroughs at 50 Tony Travers, 2015-11-24 It is the year 1965 Mary Quant introduces the miniskirt to society in her shop in Chelsea the Dalek style Post Office Tower is opened and the Beatles play their last ever live UK tour date Most importantly on 1 April a new system of city government is introduced and London's thirty two boroughs are born revolutionising the capital into the place we know today New names had to be chosen councillors elected and policies formed these boroughs and the Greater London Council between them took control of housing roads planning schools and social services Half a century on and though the GLC was abolished in 1986 the boroughs live on now working alongside a new metropolitan government headed by mayors Ken Livingstone and since 2008 Boris Johnson

In London's Boroughs at 50 Tony Travers examines the governing system that developed alongside the growing metropolis and by identifying the unique path each has taken over the years tells the fascinating story of how our remarkably diverse boroughs have not only survived but actively shaped both the city and the lives of its inhabitants in their impressive fifty year history
