Changing Violent Men:

Changing Violent Men R. Emerson Dobash, 2000 Changing Violent Men is based on the evaluation of British criminal justice responses and treatment programs for men who use violence against a woman partner. Court enforced abuser programs are compared with more traditional sanctions such as fines and probation. And qualitative and quantitative data are used to delineate patterns of personal change. This book allows the men and women involved to speak about their lives and the impact of criminal justice interventions upon them. Home Truths About Domestic Violence Jalna Hanmer, Catherine Itzin, 2013-09-13 While men's violence to women is an everyday culturally supported activity this reader demonstrates that men's violence can be curtailed and that women and children can be assisted effectively that state policies and provision can be improved and that women can actively participate in the resolution of their difficulties. Bringing together new work and key papers Home Truths About Domestic Violence provides a comprehensive overview and up to date account of the progress so far and identifies what still needs to be done. Areas covered include women's experience of violence children's experience of violence personal experiences of the justice system state policies on violence in the US and UK educational programmes and initiatives. This substantial Reader makes a significant contribution to the understanding of domestic violence from both a policy and a practice perspective. Together with its companion volume Home Truths About Child Sexual Abuse it provides an in depth resource for a wide range of teachers students and professionals highlighting the diverse and complex dimensions of the problem of domestic violence. Domestic Violence Michael Freeman, 2017-03-02 Domestic violence domestic hooliganism it has been called is one of the cancers of our age. This volume offers a challenging selection of materials as a picture of a multi faceted problem. The issues embraced range from criminal and civil law responses and the value of mediation to the impact on children and to the cultural context. The materials are derived from a variety of sources and from different disciplines to offer the reader an understanding of the problem not easily culled from standard library resources. Biographical methods and professional practice Chamberlayne, Prue, Bornat, Joanna, 2004-03-10 This book uses a range of interpretive approaches to reveal the dynamics of service users and professionals individual experiences and life worlds. From their research the contributors show how biographical methods can improve theoretical understanding of professional practice as well as enrich the learning and development of professionals and promote more meaningful and creative practitioner service user relationships. The book reviews applications of biographical methods in both policy and practice in a range of professional contexts from health and social care to education and employment. It explores the impact of social change in three main arenas transformation from Eastern to Western types of society in Europe major shifts in social and welfare principles experiences of immigration and of new cultural diversities on professional practice. It critically evaluates subjective and reflexive processes in interactions between researchers practitioners and users of services considers the institutional arrangements and cultural contexts which support effective and sensitive interventions draws on actual projects and tracks reflection progress and outcomes With contributions from leading international experts it provides a valuable comparative perspective Researchers policy analysts and practitioners postgraduate students teachers and trainers will find this book a stimulating read Biographical Methods and Professional Practice Prue Chamberlayne, Joanna Bornat, Ursula Apitzsch, 2004-03-10 Biographical methods combine a focus on lifetime individual experience as a component of understanding human agency with an examination of interactions with social structures institutions This text provides examples of how such approaches have been applied in practice settings in policy initiatives Railway Times, 1911

The Railway Times, 1911 Handbook of Offender Assessment and Treatment Clive R. Hollin, 2001 Provides an up to date review of current knowledge and best practice in the rehabilitation and treatment of offenders in community prison and secure hospital settings Sections cover the rationale and objectives of treatment risk assessment the whole range of approaches to treatment including behavioural cognitive family work reasoning rehabilitation and anger management and the assessment and treatment of various categories of offenders and problems with detailed chapters that include child abuse violence mentally disordered offenders and sex offenders Also includes a section dealing with different types of treatment settings maximum security hospitals residential settings and in the community Regulating Autonomy Shelley Day Sclater, 2009-04 These essays explore the nature and limits of individual autonomy in law policy and the work of regulatory agencies Authors ask searching questions about the nature and scope of the regulation of private lives from intimacies personal relationships and domestic lives to reproduction They question the extent to which the law does or should protect individual autonomy Recent rapid advances in the development of new technologies particularly those concerned with human genetics and assisted reproduction have generated new questions practical social legal and ethical about how far the state should intervene in individual decision making Is there an inevitable tension between individual liberty and the common good How might a workable balance between the public and the private be struck How indeed should we think about autonomy The essays explore the arguments used to create and maintain the boundaries of autonomy for example the protection of the vulnerable public goods of various kinds and the maintenance of tradition and respect for cultural practices Contributors address how those boundaries should be drawn and interventions justified How are contemporary ethical debates about autonomy constructed and what principles do they embody What happens when those principles become manifest in law

The New Men's Studies Eugene R. August, 1994 Contains some 1000 annotated entries that describe books about men Coverage includes men's awareness health rights heterosexuality and homosexuality patriarchy and minority males Each entry describes the book's content and where appropriate its political stance Arresting Abuse Keith Guzik, 2009 Somewhat overlooked in this debate has been how mandatory arrest and no drop prosecution affect abusers a critical question for understanding the power of criminal punishment to combat intimate partner abuse In Arresting Abuse Keith Guzik answers this question Drawing both from firsthand observations of a police department and a criminal court following mandatory policies and extensive interviews with 30 offenders arrested and prosecuted for domestic violence Arresting Abuse provides a critical assessment While mandatory arrest and no drop prosecution allow the state to extend formal legal supervision over an increasing number of violent men and women thus seemingly increasing its power over them offenders prove resistant to change They see themselves as victims of injustice continue to view their violence as justified and devise new strategies to preserve their definition and enactment of self Conditions ,1986 Michigan reports ,2004

Railroad Age Gazette ,1907 Early Prediction and Prevention of Child Abuse Kevin Browne, Kevin D.

Browne, 2002-06-14 Written for all those involved in child protection work this volume focuses on evidence based practice It features four sections covering prevalence and prediction primary and secondary prevention helping victims and helping offenders Conflict, Gender, and Violence European Research Network on Conflict, Gender and Violence. Interdisciplinary Conference, 2004 Based on studies presented at the 6th Interdisciplinary Conference on Conflict Gender and Violence in Vienna this volume contributes to the field of interdisciplinary gender research and provides useful information for those working on sexual harassment and other issues The broad based collaboration of contributors reflects an equally wide range of theoretical underpinnings and methodological choices with a three fold goal first to provide unique opportunities to network across disciplines and redirect established ways of thinking second to examine the added value of work generated within European cultural contexts and disseminate it to an international audience and finally to stimulate innovative thinking and serve as a springboard for joint creative projects that benefit from cross national or interdisciplinary research

Reducing Crime Amanda Perry-Kessaris, Cynthia McDougall, David P. Farrington, 2006 Reducing Crime offers an objective look at the effectiveness of criminal justice interventions in the reduction of crime The text is based on research initiated by the UK Home Office Changing Social Work and Welfare Pam Carter, Tony Jeffs, Mark Smith, 1992

Wife-abuse and Battering in the West Bank and Gaza Mohammed Haj Yahia, 1999 Anger Treatment for People with Developmental Disabilities John L. Taylor, Raymond W. Novaco, 2005-07-18 Arranged in three sections Anger Treatment for People with Intellectual Difficulties presents a session by session guide to the delivery of an individualized CBT for people with mild borderline intellectual disabilities and anger problems that can result in serious aggression or violence The treatment manual is presented within a clear theoretical framework and reinforced by outcome and process data providing empirical evidence for its effectiveness and application in clinical settings
