Changing Division Of Labor In South Asia:

The Changing Division of Labor in South Asia James Warner Bjorkman, 1987 Revised versions of papers presented at a symposium held at the University of Wisconsin in November 1984

Development and Social Change Philip McMichael, 2016-01-25 The author is a proud sponsor of the 2020 SAGE Keith Roberts Teaching Innovations Award enabling graduate students and early career faculty to attend the annual ASA pre conference teaching and learning workshop In this new Sixth Edition of Development and Social Change A Global Perspective author Philip McMichael describes a world undergoing profound social political and economic transformations from the post World War II era through the present He tells a story of development in four parts colonialism developmentalism globalization and sustainability that shows how the global development project has taken different forms from one historical period to the next Throughout the text the underlying conceptual framework is that development is a political construct created by dominant actors states multilateral institutions corporations and economic coalitions and based on unequal power arrangements While rooted in ideas about progress and prosperity development also produces crises that threaten the health and well being of millions of people and sparks organized resistance to its goals and policies Frequent case studies make the intricacies of globalization concrete meaningful and clear Development and Social Change A Global Perspective challenges us to see ourselves as global citizens even as we are global consumers Contributor to the SAGE Teaching Innovations and Professional Development Award Find out more at www.sagepub.com/sociologyaward

Global Change, Regional Response Barbara Stallings, 1995-09-29 This book offers a new perspective in studying development in the post cold war world

Feminist Political Ecology Dianne Rocheleau, Barbara Thomas-Slayter, Esther Wangari, 2013-04-15 Feminist Political Ecology explores the gendered relations of ecologies economies and politics in communities as diverse as the rubber tappers in the rainforests of Brazil to activist groups fighting racism in New York City Women are often at the centre of these struggles struggles which concern local knowledge everyday practice rights to resources sustainable development environmental quality and social justice The book bridges the gap between the academic and rural orientation of political ecology and the largely activist and urban focus of environmental justice movements

Labour in Southeast Asia Becky Elmhirst, Ratna Saptari, 2004-05-07 Brings together current research on labour in Southeast Asia offering theoretical insights and detailed empirical case studies drawn from a variety of contexts

Cities, Change, and Conflict Nancy Kleniewski, Alexander R. Thomas, Gregory Fulkerson, 2024-06-28 Cities Change and Conflict was one of the first texts to embrace the perspective of political economy as its main explanatory framework and then complement it with the rich contributions of human ecology as well as perspectives derived from critical approaches to social theory Although its primary focus is on North American cities the book contains several chapters on cities in other parts of the world including the Global North and Global South It provides both historical and contemporary accounts of the impact of globalization on urban development and urban institutions This sixth edition features a new groundbreaking chapter on the relationship between the physical environment and human settlements including the urban rural nexus This edition also expands and updates coverage of recent trends such as the establishment and evolution of gay neighborhoods the suburbanization of immigrant groups the situation of the immigrant youth known as Dreamers the reverse migration of Blacks from the North to the South and the proliferation of exurban communities Beyond examining the dynamics that shape the form and functionality of cities the text surveys the experience of urban life among different social groups including a new perspective on intersectionality as it affects people s experiences in cities It illuminates the workings of the urban economy local and federal governments and the criminal justice system while addressing policy debates and decisions that affect almost every aspect of urbanization and urban life
