Changing Face Of Nigeria:

Muslim-Christian Dialogue in Post-Colonial Northern Nigeria M. Iwuchukwu, 2013-10-02 Iwuchukwu examines the perennial conflicts in different parts of northern Nigeria and why they are popularly called Muslim Christian clashes Specifically he examines the immediate and remote factors that are responsible for the conflicts Political Culture, Change, and Security Policy in Nigeria Kalu Kalu, 2018-03-15 Demonstrating how political culture facilitates or distorts political preferences and political outcomes this book explores how the historical development of social conditions and the current social structures shape understandings and constrain individual and collective actions within the Nigerian political system Political Culture Change and Security Policy examines the extent to which specific norms and socialization processes within the political and civic culture abet corruption or the proclivity to engage in corrupt practices and how they help reinforce political attitudes and civic norms that have the potential to undermine the effectiveness of government It also delineates specific doctrinal models and strategic framework essential to the development and implementation of Nigeria's national security policy as well as innovative approaches to national development planning Professor Kalu N Kalu offers an exhaustive study that integrates several quantitative models in addressing a series of theoretical and empirical questions that inform historical and contemporary issues of the Nigerian project The general premise is that it is not enough to simply highlight the problems of the state and address the what question we must also address the why and how questions that drive political change policy preferences and competing political outcomes

The Changing Face of Christianity Lamin O. Sanneh, Joel A. Carpenter, 2005 The questions and answers about Christianity and its contemporary mission now being formed in the African churches will have enormous influence in the years to come This volume offers nine new essays addressing this sea change and its importance for the future of Christianity

Nigerian Authors and the Me-Generation Eugenia Ossana, 2024-12-31 Nigerian Authors and the Me Generation New Shades of Black explores African literary issues and focuses on Nigerian generations throughout history It also underscores women authors relatively unknown or dispersed role and their positions regarding Western feminism Concurrently the book acknowledges the emergence of a current Generation called the Me Generation dealing with erstwhile taboo themes and genre experimentation Three contemporary novels are singled out and analysed My Sister the Serial Killer by Oyinkan Braithwaite A Small Silence by Jumoke Verissimo and Freshwater by Akwaeke Emezi They deal with the trope of blackness as humour and satire as a healing space and as Igbo spiritual cosmivision which contests Western givens This book can become a reference for those interested in African literature and particularly Nigerian literature Concurrently it can be a starting point to enrich the debate on African literature

Changing Faces of Developing Countries Florian Plit, 1992

Political Economy, New Media, and Nigerian Popular Cultures Benjamin Olumuyiwa Popoola, Israel Ayinla Fadipe, 2025-04-15 The Nigerian media industry with the introduction of information and communication technologies social networking sites and the internet has energized popular cultures that revolve around movies Nollywood Hollywood Bollywood etc music Afro hip hop American music sports football European leagues fandom celebrity worship religious movements pentecostalism nationalistic identities online streaming platforms yahoo yahoo cultures money ritualism and so on Thus the present book examines how political economy theory of the media has been used to shape these listed popular cultures in the country and what uses and gratifications people seek from them how people symbolically interacted with them and how they socially learn from these popular cultures As a matter of fact using cogent and relevant case studies with postulations of popular economy theory of the media the papers have looked into the intersection between political economy theory popular cultures and new media using postulations from other relevant media theories and methodologies Communication popular cultures and media studies scholars and students will find this book useful for academic purposes

Nigerian History, Politics and Affairs Adiele Eberchukwu Afigbo, 2005 These essays attempt to focus the light of history on Nigeria Nigerians and their contemporary condition The root idea here is that fundamental to all historical works that when the mind interacts with the past the result is something like a torchlight whose beam is focused on the present thus enabling us to achieve a better understanding of the problems which face us Afigbo has probed deep into Nigeria's past bringing out all the facets all the elements and all the issues that are necessary to improve the present
