All Indians Do Not Live in Teepees (or Casinos) Catherine C. Robbins, 2011-10-01 Both a tribute to the unique experiences of individual Native Americans and a celebration of the values that draw American Indians together this book explores contemporary Native life Based on personal experience and grounded in journalism this story begins with the repatriation of ancestral remains excavated during an archaeological expedition nearly a century earlier to the Pueblo peoples of New Mexico This event along with subsequent repatriations has accelerated similar momentum across much of Native America Author Catherine C Robbins traces this restorative effect in areas such as economic development urbanization the arts science and health care Through dozens of interviews Robbins draws out the voices of Indian people some well known and many at the grassroots level to speak against the background of the narrative's historical context The result is a rich account of Native American life in contemporary America revealing not a monolithic Indian experience but rather a mosaic of diverse peoples existing on a continuum that marks both their distinctions and their shared realities From publisher description

Bordewich, 2006 This collection of work by both Native and non Native artists speaks of the complexity of Native American historical and cultural influences in contemporary culture Rather than focusing on artists who attempt to maintain strict cultural practices it brings together a group of artists who engage the larger contemporary art world and are not afraid to step beyond the bounds of tradition Focusing on a group of 10 artists who came of age since the initial Native Rights movement of the 1960s and 70s the book emphasizes art that does not so much look Indian but incorporates Native content in surprising and innovative ways that defy easy categorization The Native artists featured here focus on the evolution of cultural traditions The non Native artists focus primarily on the history of European colonization in America Artists include Matthew Buckingham Lewis deSoto Peter Edlund Nicholas Galanin
