Changing Places Womens Lives In The City:

Changing Places Chris Booth, Jane Darke, Susan Yeandle, 1996-09-28 This book offers a specifically feminist perspective on women's lives in contemporary cities one which the editors hope will sustain and influence women's ways of being in those cities The contributors offer an array of knowledge about women's place and women's places in cities today The book acknowledges women's positive as well as negative experiences in their roles as workers mothers housewives shoppers and members of social networks Women are not seen as passive victims of capitalism or of male violence although the realities of exploitation and the fear of crime are recognized

Italian Women and the City Janet Levarie Smarr, Daria Valentini, 2003 Studies of the city and of women's experiences of the city have focused primarily on modern times especially as modernism was defined in large part by urban life Italy however has a long history of urban centered culture and women have been a vocal part of that culture since the Renaissance This volume therefore looks at the art and literature of both earlier and more modern periods to investigate the meanings of the city for Italian women the intensely gendered meanings for both sexes of those city spaces that excluded women and the conditions that permitted a limited permeability of gendered boundaries Two aspects to the combination of women and city are salient to these investigations One involves their metaphorical relationship Urbs citta ville the words for city tend to be grammatically feminine and a long tradition of representation associates the city with a woman Women especially writers could exploit modify or resist the prevailing uses of such metaphors The second aspect of connection involves social realities What was or is the relation of the female city with the real women who inhabit it What kind of site has it provided for women seeking a satisfying life for themselves How has art and literature by men and by women represented the relationship of female persons or characters to urban spaces

Sex and the Revitalized City Leslie Kern, 2011-01-01 When a recent wave of condominium development overtook Toronto women emerged as powerful consumers and reports claimed that home ownership was offering young single women freedom financial independence and personal security Sex and the Revitalized City examines the truth of these claims by exploring the phenomenon from the perspective of women condo owners and planners and developers This fresh perspective on urban revitalization reveals that condo ownership is not freeing women from constraints neoliberal ideologies are remaking women's relationship with the city in the image of fast capital and consumer citizenship Women's emancipation through condominium ownership is a marketing ploy rather than a major shift in gender relations

Reinventing the City? Head of Civic Engagement Dublin City University and Visiting Professor of Development Studies University of Liverpool and St Mary's University Nova Scotia

Ronaldo Munck, 2003-01-01 Although Liverpool is the central theme of this book the author gives an informed comparative overview of the city in a worldwide context Chapters examine in detail the cultural social and economic legacy of the city

Feminist City Leslie Kern, 2021-09-14 Feminist City is an ongoing experiment in living differently living better and living more justly in an urban world We live in the city of men Our public spaces are not designed for female bodies There is little consideration for women as mothers workers or carers The urban streets often are a place of threats rather than community Gentrification has made the everyday lives of women even more difficult What would a metropolis for working women look like A city of friendships beyond Sex and the City A transit system that accommodates mothers with strollers on the school run A public space with enough toilets A place where women can walk without harassment In Feminist City through history personal experience and popular culture Leslie Kern exposes what is hidden in plain sight the social inequalities built into our cities homes and neighborhoods Kern offers an alternative vision of the feminist city Taking on fear motherhood friendship activism and the joys and perils of being alone Kern maps the city from new vantage points laying out an intersectional feminist approach to urban histories and proposes that the city is perhaps also our best hope for shaping a new urban future It is time to dismantle what we take for granted about cities and to ask how we can build more just sustainable and women friendly cities together
