Celeb 2.0 Kelli S. Burns,2009-10-22 This volume looks at how the new capabilities of Web 2 0 are changing the worlds of celebrity fandom and gossip With Ashton Kutcher s record breaking tweeting more famous than his films and Perez Hilton actually getting more attention than Paris the actress often covered in his blog the worlds of celebrity celebration and online social networking are pushing the public s crush on the famous and infamous into overdrive Celeb 2 0 How Social Media Foster Our Fascination with Popular Culture explores this phenomenon Celeb 2 0 looks at how blogs video sharing sites user news sites social networks and message boards are fueling America s already voracious consumption of pop culture Full of fascinating insights and interviews the book looks at how celebrities use blogs Twitter and other tools how YouTube and other sites create celebrity how Web 2 0 shortens the distance between fans and stars and how the new social media influences news reporting and series television

TV Transformations Tania Lewis,2013-09-13 The past decade has seen an explosion of lifestyle makeover TV shows Audiences around the world are being urged to renovate everything from their homes to their pets and children while lifestyle experts on TV now tell us what not to eat and what not to wear Makeover television and makeover culture is now ubiquitous and yet compared with reality TV shows like Big Brother and Survivor there has been relatively little critical attention paid to this format This exciting collection of essays written by leading media scholars from the UK US and Australia aims to reveal the reasons for the huge popularity and influence of the makeover show Written in a lively and accessible manner the essays brought together here will help readers make sense of makeover TV by offering a range of different approaches to understanding the emergence of this popular cultural phenomenon Looking at a range of shows from The Biggest Loser to Trinny and Susannah Undress essays include an analysis of how and why makeover TV shows have migrated across such a range of TV cultures the social significance of the rise of home renovation shows the different ways in which British versus American audiences identify with makeover shows and the growing role of lifestyle TV in the context of neo liberalism in educating us to be good citizens This book was published as a special issue of Continuum Journal of Media and Cultural Studies

Our House Gerry Smyth,Jo Croft,2006 Space has emerged in recent years as a radical category in a range of related disciplines across the humanities Of the many possible applications of this new interest some of the most exciting and challenging have addressed the issue of domestic architecture and its function as a space for both the dramatisation and the negotiation of a cluster of highly salient issues concerning amongst other things belonging and exclusion fear and desire identity and difference Our House is a cross disciplinary collection of essays taking as its focus both the prospect and the possibility of the house This latter term is taken in its broadest possible resonance encompassing everything from the great houses so beloved of nineteenth century English novelists to the caravans and mobile homes of the latterday travelling community and all points in between The essays are written by a combination of established and emerging scholars working in a variety of scholarly disciplines including literary criticism sociology cultural studies history popular music and architecture No specific school or theory predominates although the work of two key figures Gaston Bachelard and Martin Heidegger is engaged throughout This collection engages with a number of key issues raised by the increasingly troubled relationship between the cultural built and natural environments in the contemporary world
