Encouraging Ethics and Challenging Corruption Noel Preston, Charles J. G. Sampford, Carmel Connors, 2002 Encouraging Ethics and Preventing Corruption brings theory and practice together in addressing the question How are we to be ethical in public life and through public institutions It is a major contribution to public sector ethics within Australia and internationally because it provides an exhaustive analysis of reform across a decade in one jurisdiction Queensland and then proceeds to itemise a best practice integrity system or ethics regime Drawing on the extensive research of two of Australia s leading practical ethicists this text is essential reading for all students and practitioners of applied and professional ethics in the public sphere Part A of the text provides a preferred theoretical and conceptual framework which both justifies and guides the development of a public sector ethics regime Part B examines the place of the individual within a world of institutional ethics Part C outlines the Queensland governance reforms introduced since 1989 following the Fitzgerald Inquiry which exposed corruption in the police and ministry The final chapter the Epilogue gathers the insights of earlier chapters and suggests a more explicitly ethics centred approach to governance reform that may take us beyond best practice Clearly while it is the Australian context we have in mind we are confident that this is a text which addresses the quest for integrity and ethics in government wherever society is committed to social and liberal democratic ideals

The study of hagiographies has generally been focused on the more prominent saints of late antiquity and the Middle Ages who inspired significant and long lasting veneration However this has caused many less well known saints to be pushed aside and forgotten This book is a study into one such saint Irenaeus a martyr who was killed in 304 CE in Sirmium Pannonia His short lived cult his feast day and the account of his martyrdom which had been translated into Latin Greek Old Slavonic Georgian and Armenian had all been forgotten during the Middle Ages This book examines Irenaeus of Sirmium s life cult sainthood and eventual disappearance from the memory of medieval Christendom in the context of a wider study on the memory of those less well known saints who like Irenaeus became neglected and eventually forgotten Irenaeus of Sirmium and His Story in the Medieval East and West will be of interest to scholars and students alike interested in hagiography medieval literature and history as well as all those interested in the religious history of Byzantium medieval Europe and the Slavic world Challenging Saints R. H. Lesser,2002 Religious Regimes and State Formation Eric R. Wolf,1991-01-01

This book intends to systematically overcome the received practice of treating religion and politics as wholly separate and independent domains It studies power and meaning in their antagonistic interdependencies rather than approaching religion purely as a realm of meaning without reference to issues of power or dealing with politics as the province of power without raising questions of meaning Religion and politics are thus seen in relation to one another and attention is focused on the disputes about how political and religious regimes should be formed Religious Regimes and State Formation will convince the reader that god and politics have much in common and offers surprising new perspectives on old problems America ,1916 Michigan Challenge ,1974 In Search of Heroes Gina Lennox,1998-06-01 What makes an honourable man and who are the heroes of our time Five in depth stories of seven remarkable men allow us to explore the concept of hero Mythical heroes went on dangerous adventures fighting legendary battles and monsters Modern heroes face frontiers of a different kind The seven men who tell their story in In Search of Heroes shine with spirit and passion They are men of integrity and contributors to their community Their inner and outer journeys both reflect and inspire our own There s something that the individual carries which is vital which the corporation does not carry the nation does not carry something vital to the knowing of ourselves and to our survival MICHAEL LEUNIG CARTOONIST What fire fighting has taught me is that adrenalin does different things to different people it can put you on the right tram or the wrong tram and if you haven t got control of it you re going to get on the wrong tram BILL JONES ONE OF THREE FIREFIGHTERS Most of the time I m an easy going bloke I like a bit of fun if you really come to know me But if I can t get out of an argument if you can t run any further well you have to take a stand KAJAI FRANK SEBASTIAN KIMBERLEY LAND COUNCIL Twice the Challenge Leo Holland,1986 Elder's Journal of the Southern States Mission ,1905 An Answer to Dr. Pusey's Challenge Respecting the Doctrine of the Real Presence John Harrison,1871 Archbishop's Champion Brought to Book Edward Josiah Stearns,1881 The Advanced Music Reader Frederic Herbert Ripley,Thomas Tapper,1897 The American Cricketer ,1919 Instead Olive Wadsley,1919 The Speaker's Bible James Hastings,Edward Hastings,Ann Wilson Hastings,1925 The Roman Catholic Church in Italy Alexander Robertson,1905
