Challenging Religion:

Challenges to a Challenging Faith David Cole,1995      Why People Don't Believe Paul Chamberlain,2011-05-01
Religion is increasingly seen as a dangerous source of violence in the world breeding a fear of faith in a very vocal group of critics Most Christians are blissfully unaware of the litany of allegations being brought against religion including that it is the cause of intolerance imperialism irrationality bigotry and war to name a few But ignorance is not the answer In Why People Don't Believe Paul Chamberlain strives to represent the concerns and challenges raised against religious faith particularly those raised against Christianity to help readers understand them He then thoughtfully responds to these criticisms honestly evaluating whether they have merit Lastly he outlines the many good and humane contributions Christianity has made to the world throughout the past 2 000 years Anyone who is troubled by today's headlines involving religious violence or who wants to be able to respond intelligently to critics will find Why People Don't Believe a welcome hopeful book      Challenge of a Liberal Faith George N. Marshall,1988      Present-day Challenges to Religion Mathavum Chinthayum,1973      The Challenge of Religion Thomas N. Munson,1985 With the Reformation philosophers sought to establish a new way of thinking independent of religion Borrowing principles popularized religious reformers the right of conscience the utter transcendence of God the sinfulness of the world they constructed a new metaphysics that highlighted the mystery of God and the complete intelligibility of rational man From this history an understanding of our religious situation is distilled The chapters of this work develop for the reader the intellectual structure of religion and show how its language imagery and ritual function They argue that if religion no longer presents a challenge it is because we think of it in terms of the new metaphysics To recapture the reality we must join our contemporaries who are attacking the premises of classical modern philosophy and so experience ourselves afresh      Millard's Review of the Far East ,1930 Vol 34 includes Special tariff conference issue Nov 6 1925
The China Weekly Review ,1930      Islam, a Challenge to Faith Samuel Marinus Zwemer,1907      Challenging Religion James A. Beckford, Professor,James T. Richardson, Professor,2015-05-29 In the last half century new religious movements or cults of one sort and another have mushroomed throughout the US and Europe Increasingly these groups have been met with attempts to monitor and control them on the part of the state and concerns about the protection of religious consumers have been set against the democratic right to religious freedom In this collection leading sociologists of religion from the UK US Western and Eastern Europe debate the political practical and ethical issues which arise from these changes in the religious landscape      The Christian Century ,1930      Intercollegian ,1927      The Congregationalist ,1929
Can God be Trusted? John G. Stackhouse,2000 Why does an all powerful all good God allow evil to happen This book offers a lucid and accessible overview of this intractable problem It presents the reflections of classical and contemporary thinkers and gives clues as to how God governs the cosmos while arguing that a comprehensive explanation is not available Instead it asks whether God can be trusted in spite of evil and suggests why the reply can ultimately be Yes      Right Wing

Politics and Religion Henry L. Bechthold, 2006      Letter to a Christian Nation Sam Harris, 2011-05-31 A hard hitting polemic against religious fundamentalism Foreword by Richard Dawkins Thousands of people have written to tell me that I am wrong not to believe in God The most hostile of these communications have come from Christians This is ironic as Christians generally imagine that no faith imparts the virtues of love and forgiveness more effectively than their own The truth is that many who claim to be transformed by Christ's love are deeply even murderously intolerant of criticism While we may want to ascribe this to human nature it is clear that such hatred draws considerable support from the Bible How do I know this The most disturbed of my correspondents always cite chapter and verse So begins Letter to a Christian Nation Sam Harris's hard hitting rebuttal of religious fundamentalism and blind belief With deceptively simple arguments he demolishes the myths on which Christianity was built challenges believers to open their eyes to the contradictions of their faith and warns us of the dangers of America's ever increasing unification of Church and State Sam Harris is the author of the New York Times bestseller The End of Faith Religion Terror and the Future of Reason and winner of the 2005 PEN Martha Albrand Award for First Non fiction He is a graduate in philosophy from Stanford University and is now completing a doctorate in neuroscience He lives in New York

Koehne,1911 The Problem of God Mark Clark,2017-08-22 The Problem of God explores answers to the most difficult questions raised against Christianity A skeptic who became a Christian and then a pastor author Mark Clark grew up in an atheistic home After his father s death he began a skeptical search for truth through the fields of science philosophy and history eventually finding answers in the last place he expected Christianity In a winsome persuasive and humble voice The Problem of God responds to the top ten interrogations people bring against God and Christianity including Does God even exist in the first place What do we do with Christianity s violent history Is Jesus just another myth Can the Bible be trusted Why should we believe in Hell anymore today Each chapter answers the specific challenge using a mix of theology philosophy and science Filled with compelling stories and anecdotes The Problem of God presents an organized and easy to understand range of apologetics focused on both convincing the skeptic and informing the Christian The book concluding with Christianity s most audacious assertion how should we respond to Jesus claim that he is God and the only way to salvation The Moral and Religious Challenge of Our Times Henry Churchill King,1917
