Challenging Tradition:

Challenging Tradition Perry Shaw, Havilah Dharamraj, 2018-03-31 The surge of theological education in the rapidly growing church of the Majority World has highlighted the inadequacy of traditional Western methods of thinking and learning to fully accomplish the task at hand The limitations of current theological education are embodied in the formation and assessment of the master's or doctoral dissertation processes that follow a linear empiricist tradition developed in the West and exported to the Majority World Challenging Tradition Innovation in Advanced Theological Studies highlights the need for these traditions to be reconsidered in every context throughout the world Drs Shaw and Dharamraj with their team of contributors present innovations in research and documentation that demonstrate how we may better prepare theological leadership through means that are contextually relevant and locally meaningful Confronting Change, Challenging Tradition Gertrude M. Yeager, 1997-08-01 Understanding the role of women in Latin American history demands a full examination of their activities in the region's political economic and domestic spheres Toward this end historian Gertrude M Yeager has assembled the multidisciplinary collection Confronting Change Challenging Tradition The essays in this volume explore the ways in which Latin American women have shaped and have been shaped by the traditional practices and ideologies of their cultures The selections are arranged in two sections Culture and the Status of Women and Reconstructing the Past The North American West in the Twenty-First Century Brenden W. Rensink, 2022-11 In 1893 Frederick Jackson Turner famously argued that the generational process of meeting and conquering the supposedly uncivilized western frontier is what forged American identity In the late twentieth century new western historians dissected the mythologized western histories that Turner and others had long used to embody American triumph and progress While Turner's frontier is no more the West continues to present America with challenging processes to wrestle navigate and overcome The North American West in the Twenty First Century edited by Brenden W Rensink takes stories of the late twentieth century modern West and carefully pulls them toward the present explicitly tracing continuity with or unexpected divergence from trajectories established in the 1980s and 1990s Considering a broad range of topics including environment Indigenous peoples geography migration and politics these essays straddle multiple modern frontiers not least of which is the temporal frontier between our unsettled past and uncertain future These forays into the twenty first century West will inspire more scholars to pull histories to the present and by doing so reinsert scholarly findings into contemporary public awareness Modern Challenges to Islamic Law Shaheen Sardar Ali, 2016-10-06 The diversity of interpretation within Islamic legal traditions can be challenging for those working within this field of study Using a distinctly contextual approach this book addresses such challenges by combining theoretical perspectives on Islamic law with insight into how local understandings impact on the application of law in Muslim daily life Engaging with topics as diverse as Islamic constitutionalism Islamic finance human rights and internet fatawa Shaheen Sardar Ali provides an invaluable resource for scholars students and practitioners alike
