Out Spoken Jean Roberta Hillabold, Wes D. Pearce, 2013 How is identity formed If you were born in Canada that makes you Canadian if you were raised Jewish that makes you a Jew right But what about a teenage boy from small town Saskatchewan who has a secret crush on the guy who sits next to him in homeroom What does that make him And how would his identity change if he grew up to become an out of the closet gay man In Out Spoken Perspectives on Queer Identities questions like these are addressed by an eclectic range of authors in disciplines that range from sociology and education to cultural studies and literature as well as playwrights artists and writers to reveal the fluid and sometimes confounding nature of identity when sexuality is part of the mix

Hollywood Biblical Epics Richard Lindsay, 2015-06-19 This is the only book of its kind to explore biblical epics from an LGBT perspective studying films from the silent era to the postwar major studio era to the present day In spite of restrictive Hollywood censorship regulations filmmakers throughout history have pushed the boundaries of sex and violence when making religious films In this unrivaled text author and educator Richard Lindsay analyzes the relationship between bible based epics and camp films with overwrought acting casts of thousands and exotic sexuality Lindsay presents the ways in which camp style identifies films as biblical in the mainstream imagination while undermining their traditional religious messages through the inclusion of sexually diverse subtexts Viewed through this lens this provocative book explores topics like the Jazz Age excesses of The King of Kings the pre code decadence of The Sign of the Cross the horror movie tropes of The Passion of the Christ and comparisons between Ben Hur and the gay male fantasies of 1960s beefcake magazines Additional content features the history of biblical epics and a comparison of the pious expectations of filmgoers against the real content of the films
