Changing State Budgeting:

Changing State Budgeting S. Kenneth Howard, 1973 Policy and Politics in State Budgeting Kurt M. Thurmaier, Katherine G. Willoughby, 2014-12-18 States are the key to contemporary government reform efforts in the United States but we know very little about their relative effectiveness at resource allocation and their actual capacity to absorb additional fiscal and managerial responsibilities This path breaking study examines state budget offices as institutional actors with special attention to the role of budget examiners Drawing on empirical findings from field studies of eleven states in the American heartland the authors demonstrate how budgeting at the state level has become more policy oriented requiring complex decision making by budget analysts The incrementalist model of budgetary decision making thus gives way to a multiple rationalities model The authors illustrate the decision making model with the story of two office examiners who have distinctly different orientations as they begin their work and contrast the different decision nationalities that come into play for them at different points in a typical budget cycle The book includes a comprehensive bibliography of historical and modern writings on state budgeting operations activities and decision making state budgeting cycles and the state level policy development process Approaches to Budgeting and Cost Analysis Project Share, 1979 State and Local Government Administration Rabin, 1985-07-30 Addressing the major issues of state and local government administration this introductory core textbook is ideal for courses in State and Local Government Administration State Government Municipal Government Labor Relations Public Budgeting and Decision Making Policy Making and Personnel Administration Offering reliable up to date information this text provides a thorough understanding of state and local government administration and its current general trends Written by leading experts in their respective fields this work contains in depth authoritative examinations of four crucial areas organization and management including management structures at various levels of government such as counties and special districts and leadership functions budgeting decision making and financial management discussing state budgeting functions and limitations and internal and external control mechanisms policy making and policy implementation demonstrating patterns within the executive and legislative branches as well as alternatives to municipal service delivery and the integration of human services management within delivery systems and personnel administration and labor relations covering organizational training employee benefits unionism and collective bargaining Now advanced undergraduate and graduate level public administration and political science students public administrators and managers and professionals in government agencies and institutes can meet the demands of this rapidly changing field with this outstanding text Book jacket The Project Share Collection, 1976-1979 Project Share, 1979 A Cross-indexed Bibliography on School Budgets Indiana University.
