Changing Face Of China:

The Changing Face of China John Gittings, 2006-07-06 Where is China heading in the 21st century Can its Communist Party survive or is it being challenged by growing inequality and unrest Will the US and China cooperate or compete in a dangerous future Will China's economic boom be brought to a halt by environmental catastrophe In this highly readable account John Gittings provides the essential information to help answer these vital questions for the world In the 60 years since Mao Zedong took the road to victory China has undergone not one but two revolutions The first swept away the old corrupt society and sought to build a spotless new socialism behind closed doors the second since Mao's death has focused on an economic agenda which accepts the goals of global capitalism From Mao to the global market Gittings charts this complex but epic tale and concludes with some hard questions for the future China, 2002 Designed for the National Curriculum Key Stage 2 for Geography this illustrated text looks at how China is changing to face the challenges of the 21st century
