Anybodys Dad:

All Anybody Ever Wanted of Me was to Work Edith Bradley Rendleman,1996 From All Anybody Ever Wanted of Me Was to Work Starting around 1950 people stopped raising chickens milking cows and raising hogs They just buy it at the store ready to eat A lot buy a steer and have it processed in Dongola and put it in their freezer What a difference Girls have got it so easy now They don t even know what it was like to start out And I guess my mother s life when she started out was as hard again as mine because they had to make everything by hand I don t know if it could get any easier for these girls But they don t know what it was like and they never will Everything is packaged All you do is go to the store and buy you a package and cook it Automatic washers and dryers I m glad they don t have to work like I did Very glad Edith Bradley Rendleman s story of her life in southern Illinois is remarkable in many ways Recalling the first half of the twentieth century in great detail she vividly cites vignettes from her childhood as her family moved from farm to farm until settling in 1909 in the Mississippi bottoms of Wolf Lake She recounts the lives and times of her family and neighbors during an era gone forever Remarkable for the vivid details that evoke the past Rendleman s account is rare in another respect memoirs of the time usually written by people from elite or urban families often reek of nostalgia But Rendleman s memoir differs from the norm Born poor in rural southern Illinois she tells an unvarnished tale of what it was really like growing up on a tenant farm early this century

Why Didn't Anybody Ever Tell Me About This! Carolyn Mannila Harper,2006-11 Is There Anybody Out There? Susana Hernandez,2013-05-01 This is the story of a little girl who was destined to suffer since she was three years old sexually mentally and physically abused until she was forty six At three years old she started being abused by her stepsister s husband her aunts her cousins her father her father s best friend her doctors and last but not least her husband The beauty of all this is that at forty six years old she went for counseling and got healed and delivered and learned to forgive each and every person who did her so much wrong And she was blessed with a position as a parent educator with the school district and she used every abuse since she was just three years old until she was forty six to educate parents and young couples on how to not trust just anyone with their little ones and their teenagers And how when couples mistreat each other we are hurting our children and teaching them that lifestyle without knowing we are risking our children to marry abusers when they grow up She did this for fifteen years She wasn t afraid embarrassed or ashamed to speak the truth to be able to help others especially the children Please don t criticize or laugh about what you are about to read this is a real story and it is still going on today in a lot of homes hospitals and schools And it will continue if there is not enough of us brave enough to speak up and do something for the sake of our loved ones especially for the children who can t defend themselves Has Anybody Seen My Father? Harrison Kinney,1960 Why Didn't Anybody Ever Tell Me About This! , Dad Albert Payson Terhune,1914 California.
