Aperture A Collection Of Poems:

Aperture Oladayo Sanusi,2005-02 Aperture is an explosive expression of life In this debut collection of some forty poems Oladayo Sanusi explores the raw fabrics of life as he lives it Aperture is a characteristic work of a young poet with palpable energy and passion The overall tempo is fast and a vivid use of imagery is predominant The energy draining march of this work is compensated by few interspersed soothing songs and sweet supplications which are factual reflections of the author's appeals and style Oluyinka S Adediji Black Aperture Matt Rasmussen,2013-05-13 In his moving debut collection Matt Rasmussen faces the tragedy of his brother's suicide refusing to focus on the expected pathos blurring the edge between grief and humor In Outgoing the speaker erases his brother's answering machine message to save his family from the shame of dead you answering calls In other poems once ordinary objects become dreamlike A buried light bulb blooms downward a flower of smoldering filaments A refrigerator holds an evening landscape a tinfoil lake vegetables dying in the crisp Destructive and redemptive Black Aperture opens to the complicated entanglements of mourning damage and healing sorrow and laughter and torment balanced with moments of relief Aperture: Quest and Appraisal J.J. Goeders,2009-09-22 In this collection J J Goeders has compiled poems that he has written over a span of time that extends from his early teens to the present There is no overriding theme though he admits that poetry writing for him is as much the capturing of an emotional experience as it is the synthesis of observation consequently the book's title Jon sees the freedom to use words as an uncharted frontier that can be explored unendingly He strives to connect what is seen with how he reacts to it or imagines how others might react as well In addition to authoring the poetry in APERTURE Quest and Appraisal Mr Goeders illustrated the book's cover Aperture Anna Leahy,2017 As the title suggests Aperture opens gaps through which to see and hear the lives of imagined and actual women This collection becomes a stage on which these women perform and the poems play with notions of staging with how we present ourselves and how we are perceived and represented by others The stories and voices in Aperture bend and come back again telling the truth slant Anna Leahy's generous poetic imagination encompasses women from Marie Curie to Esther Williams to Elizabeth Siddal poet Felicia Hemans to the mothers of the characters in The Wizard of Oz a lighthouse keeper and a plethora of saints Leahy quotes Barthes in order to look at history we must be excluded from it It is through the rare courage of distance both aesthetic and psychological that the lovely compelling poems of Aperture afford us their unique glimpse of an all too often ignored female universe of inner and outer significance Annie Finch Aperture David Bryson,2023-06-17 Aperture is the second book and collaboration of David's poetry and Lindi's art The first book Trace Lines 2018 drew upon Lindi's photographic images Since then Lindi's art practice has shifted to abstract painting initially centred around the design elements of the grid and then evolving to more expressive and experimental forms The artworks in this book retain Lindi's photographic fascination with mark making Together with the emotional potential of colour such as the allure of indigo Lindi's paintings explore the themes of place and time memory and our own unique stories David's poetry derives from the observed world and the attempt to discover something extraordinary in the most mundane or coincidental of events The poetry strives to establish a connection with the reader in this interplay between external and internal worlds Placing art with poetry is a delicate process While there is not a literal reference between a poem and its accompanying artwork the book seeks to establish an implied emotional connection The reader can then respond to the collaboration in their own way from their own experience Aperture is a collaboration of poetry and art It invites readers to find pleasure and meaning in the interplay of art and words The visual image is a way into the words the words an illumination of the abstract images

APERTURE: Quest and Appraisal J. J. Goeders, 2009-09 In this collection J J Goeders has compiled poems that he has written over a span of time that extends from his early teens to the present There is no overriding theme though he admits that poetry writing for him is as much the capturing of an emotional experience as it is the synthesis of observation consequently the book's title Jon sees the freedom to use words as an uncharted frontier that can be explored unendingly He strives to connect what is seen with how he reacts to it or imagines how others might react as well In addition to authoring the poetry in APERTURE Quest and Appraisal Mr Goeders illustrated the book's cover

Our Aperture Ander Monson, 2008-02 Elegaic and occasionally formal as always this new collection of Monson's poems explores virtual and physical spaces lining up world after world after world These poems list go associative riffing on the manifestations of our manufactured lives From methylchloroisothiazolinone the wonderfully named shampoo ingredient to actor Wil Wheaton and digital shivs these poems explore the muchness and emptiness of our lives

American Aperture: poems Charles Edward York, 2016-05-06 American Aperture poems contains 70 poems on the social conscience of America Once again Charles Edward York explores the issues facing modern America in the 21st century His poetry offers a candid no holds barred look at relationships injustice poverty sex bigotry and more
