Schinke, 2014-08-23 I welcome you to the 2014 accepted writings of Athletic Insight The ordering of papers does not match with the sequence in which they were released Rather I chose to do something a little different in this my final year as Editor and Chief of Athletic Insight What the reader finds in this most recent compendium of Athletic Insight writings is nineteen papers beginning with the most recently accepted as parts of the Autumn 2014 edition of the journal Afterward I reordered the remaining accepted papers so that they made the whole of the book more coherent to the readership Briefly there were a significant number of papers submitted to Athletic Insight from India Pakistan Iran Iraq Egypt Sweden Norway the United States Canada and the United Kingdom Several of these papers were screened out even before they were sent out to editorial board members or guest reviewers for a thorough peer evaluation Those that were deemed acceptable were then farmed out to scholars well versed in the various topics submitted to the journal The topics submitted spanned coaching motor learning and sport psychology intersections youth sport elite amateur sport professional sport cultural sport psychology and various aspects relating to exercise psychology This diversity in subject matter confirms what I have always known that Athletic Insight is inclusive and open to a breadth of topics critical scholarship and emerging and contentious issues pertinent today within the sphere of sport and exercise psychology
