Advent Hope In Scripture And History:

The Advent Hope in Scripture and History Viggo Norskov Olsen, 1987 Jesus and His Promised Second Coming Tucker S. Ferda, 2024-09-12 In this pioneering study of Scripture and reception history Tucker S Ferda shows that the hope for Jesus's second coming originated in his own message about the coming of the kingdom after a time of distress. Most historical Jesus scholars take for granted that Jesus's second coming was invented by his zealous early followers. In Jesus and His Promised Second Coming Tucker S Ferda challenges this critical consensus. Using innovative methodology, Ferda works backward through reception history to Paul and the Gospels to argue that the hope for the second coming originated in Jesus's own grappling with the prospect of death and his conviction that the kingdom was near. He expected a return that would coincide with the final judgment and the end of the age within the space of a generation. Ferda also makes a major contribution to the reception history of the Bible, shedding light on how Christians distinguished their faith from Judaism by deriding Jewish messianism as earthly minded and militaristic. In the early modern period, critics found an expedient way to distance Jesus from this caricature of Jewish messianism; they pinned the expectation for the second coming on Jesus's early followers. A new appreciation for the diversity of Judaism and messianism in the Second Temple period makes possible a fresh reconstruction of Jesus. Bold and historically astute, Jesus and His Promised Second Coming breathes new life into a long stagnant conversation. It also offers readers fresh insight into the history of Jewish-Christian relations. Students and scholars of the New Testament will need to read and engage with Ferda's provocative argument.

Andrews University Seminary Studies Andrews University. Seventh-Day Adventist Theological Seminary, 1991 The Advent Hope for Human Hopelessness Samuele Bacchiocchi, 1986 Thinking Theologically Fritz Guy, 1999 Religious commitment is a motivation, not a substitute for careful thinking. So writes Fritz Guy in Thinking Theologically: Adventist Christianity and the Interpretation of Faith, a new release from Andrews University Press and a work long awaited by his colleagues and students. Guy offers his philosophy of how North American Seventh-day Adventists ought to go about the business of doing theology. The work is addressed to theological students, pastors, and serious general readers who are interested in what theological thinking is, why it is important, who needs to be doing it, and how it should be done.
