Advent at the Gates: Dante's Comedy Mark Musa, 1974 A long Italian narrative poem by Dante Alighieri begun c 1308 and completed in 1320 a year before his death in 1321 It is widely considered to be the pre eminent work in Italian literature and one of the greatest works of world literature The poem s imaginative vision of the afterlife is representative of the medieval world view as it had developed in the Western Church by the 14th century It helped establish the Tuscan language in which it is written as the standardized Italian language It is divided into three parts Inferno Purgatorio and Paradiso Advent at the Gates Mark Musa, 1974 Dante's Interpretive Journey William Franke, 1996-04-15 Critically engaging the thought of Heidegger Gadamer and others William Franke contributes both to the criticism of Dante s Divine Comedy and to the theory of interpretation Reading the poem through the lens of hermeneutical theory Franke focuses particularly on Dante s address to the reader as the site of a disclosure of truth The event of the poem for its reader becomes potentially an experience of truth both human and divine While contemporary criticism has concentrated on the historical character of Dante s poem often insisting on it as undermining the poem s claims to transcendence Franke argues that precisely the poem s historicity forms the ground for its mediation of a religious revelation Dante s dramatization on an epic scale of the act of interpretation itself participates in the self manifestation of the Word in poetic form Dante s Interpretive Journey is an indispensable addition to the field of Dante studies and offers rich insights for philosophy and theology as well *Dante Alighieri's Divine Comedy: Purgatory. Discourses of Mourning in Dante, Petrarch, and Proust Jennifer Rushworth, 2016-11-17 This book brings together in a novel and exciting combination three authors who have written movingly about mourning two medieval Italian poets Dante Alighieri and Francesco Petrarca and one early twentieth century French novelist Marcel Proust Each of these authors through their respective narratives of bereavement grapples with the challenge of how to write adequately about the deeply personal and painful experience of grief In Jennifer Rushworth's analysis discourses of mourning emerge as caught between the twin conflicting demands of a comforting readable shared generality and a silent solitary respect for the uniqueness of any and every experience of loss Rushworth explores a variety of major questions in the book including what type of language is appropriate to mourning What effect does mourning have on language Why and how has the Orpheus myth been so influential on discourses of mourning across different time periods and languages Might the form of mourning described in a text and the form of closure achieved by that same text be mutually formative and sustaining In this way discussion of the literary representation of mourning extends to embrace topics such as the medieval sin of acedia the proper name memory literary epiphanies the image of the book and the concept of writing as promise In addition to the three primary authors Rushworth draws extensively on the writings of Sigmund Freud Julia Kristeva Jacques Derrida and Roland Barthes These rich and diverse psychoanalytical and French theoretical traditions provide terminological nuance and frameworks for comparison particularly in relation to the complex term melancholia
