Around the Hearth Jérémy Lamaze, Maguelone Bastide,2021-09-07 From basic needs such as lighting heating or cooking to symbolic or ritual engagement hearths in indoor contexts serve as a focal point This is especially evident both spatially and architecturally in structures containing central hearths In assessing any gathering around a hearth the types of social groups involved need to be determined and their interactions clearly assessed in each specific case Beyond clearly domestic contexts many rooms or buildings have been deemed religious or cultic places often based solely on the presence of a hearth despite other possible interpretations This volume appraises and contextualises diversity in practice centering on the hearth in the Aegean and more widely in areas of the Western Mediterranean closely connected to Greek civilization notably through its colonies revealing surprising similarities but also local adaptations In the West the use of the hearth often has a unique character arising from local adaptations born of indigenous practices The combined approach presented here detailing technical aspects of the hearths themselves their architectural settings and any associated artefacts or furnishings affords a rich spectrum for cross cultural analysis between these Mediterranean regions
