Scot Danforth, Terry Jo Smith

Cultivating Cooperation:

Cultivating Cooperation Raymond A. Young, 1995 As one of the most successful farm organizations in the United States the Missouri Farmers Association brought together farm clubs from all over the state to serve as the central body through which farmer owned businesses could compete with investor owned businesses In Cultivating Cooperation Raymond A Young follows the fascinating history of MFA from its grass roots beginning in a schoolhouse in 1914 through the upheaval that led to only the second leadership change in the organization s history in 1979 William Hirth was responsible for the early success of MFA At the age of fifteen Hirth became interested in farming and started lecturing on the benefits of building a cooperative of farm clubs He continued to advocate this idea by publishing The Missouri Farmer a magazine that informed subscribers on legislative issues and farm club news and later became MFA s house organ Hirth believed that the farm clubs should capitalize not only on the economic advantages of joining together as a cooperative but on the political and social advantages as well Upon Hirth s death in 1940 Fred Heinkel took over leadership of MFA Under his guidance the cooperative grew at a feverish rate Supply companies such as oil refineries feed mills and seed plants were acquired or built whenever it proved advantageous to the farmers A sister cooperative was created to expand into neighboring states and a national alliance was created to establish a stronger representation in Washington D C MFA was also instrumental in securing a four year medical school in its hometown of Columbia in order to ensure medical care for farmers and their families in rural areas In addition MFA has played a role in helping Third World countries develop cooperatives of their own With intimate knowledge of the organization Raymond Young involves the reader in the intricacies of the formation and development of the Missouri Farmers Association enlivening his account with liberal use of anecdotes from the pages of The Missouri Farmer An introduction by Michael L Cook places the story of MFA within the context of the history of the cooperative movement nationwide Students and scholars of Missouri history as well as farmers and those interested in agriculture will find this comprehensive examination of MFA an invaluable resource

Cultivate Thriving Success Mindset Shifts That Matters
Raymond Wayne, 2022-04-10 The ongoing global pandemic is affect entire societies disrupting important structures such as health systems and medical treatment economic life social class structures and race relations as well as essential facilities for communities and everyday family life The Onslaught has brought on sweeping societal changes which make life for most people worsen in the recent months after the COVID 19 outbreak Still a smaller portion believe life will be better for most people in a 5G world where jobs health care and social activity could possibly improve looking forward Despite the general belief that the people will have a deeper relationship with technology as larger segments of the population come to rely more on digital connections for remote work remote education health care daily commercial transactions and essential social interactions many are still unsure about whether this trend will continue The New Normal is here and is definitely true likewise it is apparent in the very nature of our existence Each of us needs to face the fact that change is the only permanent thing in this world and hence each of us should be prepared for change. It is therefore wise to believe that change is inevitable and sooner or later each of us will undergo some forms of change. It will dawn on us but we can cultivate thriving success mindset shifts that matters somewhat delay it. Faced with the prospect of its inevitability we got no choice but to face the challenge of change. In this book the concept of change is elaborated and guidelines on how to prepare oneself for the onset of changes are delineated. You have heard how people are reactive to change and remain fixated to their old habits and customs. This reaction is natural considering the law of inertia which says that everything tends to remain at rest or in a continuous motion unless acted upon by an outside force. However this resistance to change should be overcome to achieve something substantial in life for the only way to achieve progress is through change. It is important for everyone to have some perspective during these uncertain times. A person may be faced with major changes in their personal life as well as their career and their organization. They may find themselves wondering what the future holds for them and their organization. One may feel stuck and unsure of what to do next but there is an opportunity to begin to move past the current state of affairs and focus on the future. What will you predict? How will you adapt to a new normal? With this in mind we have learned that most leaders are most concerned with how to make the best decisions possible in this time of crisis. They are doing their best to keep their people safe and productive and they are seeking advice from all sources to ensure that their organizations survive and thrive.

Life Has Its Own Way , Embracing the process also means letting go of the need to control every aspect of our lives. While it is important to set goals and work towards our dreams we must also remain open to the unexpected twists and turns that life presents. By doing so we allow ourselves to experience the full richness of life and to appreciate the beauty of the journey not just the destination.
