Cultivating Thinking In English And The Language Arts:

Cultivating Thinking in English and the Language Arts Robert J. Marzano, 1991 The author believes that instruction in English and the language arts can nurture the process of teaching He describes four types of thought that are particularly compatible with English and language arts instruction 1 contextual thinking 2 thinking that facilitates the construction of meaning 3 thinking that enhances knowledge development and 4 thinking that results in higher order learning The author maintains that gearing English and language arts instruction to these four types of thought requires significant shifts in both the form and function of instruction At the same time he says middle school and secondary teachers can better enhance the natural cognitive processes involved in learning He shows that the teaching and reinforcing or cultivation of thinking has the potential to illuminate the English and language arts content in ways previously not experienced Critical Thinking Jeris Folk Cassel, Robert James Congleton, 1993 Providing a balance of reference to theoretical and practical information on critical thinking this annotated bibliography of 930 selected items from 1980 through 1991 covers the fields of philosophy psychology and education It is geared especially to teachers administrators and researchers in elementary secondary and higher education Representing past and current trends in the concepts research and teaching of critical thinking the eight chapters include literature references to the history of critical thinking the Critical Thinking Movement the wide range of views on the definition and concept of critical thinking testing and evaluating professional development and teacher training research studies on learning transfer and effective teaching techniques theory of teaching critical thinking and instructional methods Author and subject indexes Literacy in America Barbara J.
