A. J. Mascarenhas, 2007      Landscape of the Soul W. Vance Grace, 2020-05-20 The North American church is struggling Our society seems to be coming apart at the seams and Christianity appears on the verge of losing its voice its leadership and its youth The church's calling is to cooperate with her Creator in the repair of the world Instead we struggle in the loss of the simplicity of the natural images of Jesus which compel us to engage tension dependency and the lesson of being on the margins Until we learn to take our cues from a world we did not build our actions will continue to prop up a society struggling from the weight of its own ethos Part history part cultural dialogue part travelogue always in conversation with the ancient and compelling biblical vision of shalom Landscape of the Soul will encourage you to see beyond the shells of your constructed world to those places where dynamic spiritual rhythms can still be found

Consuming the Romantic Utopia Eva Illouz,2023-04-28 To what extent are our most romantic moments determined by the portrayal of love in film and on TV Is a walk on a moonlit beach a moment of perfect romance or simply a simulation of the familiar ideal seen again and again on billboards and movie screens In her unique study of American love in the twentieth century Eva Illouz unravels the mass of images that define our ideas of love and romance revealing that the experience of true love is deeply embedded in the experience of consumer capitalism Illouz studies how individual conceptions of love overlap with the world of clichés and images she calls the Romantic Utopia This utopia lives in the collective imagination of the nation and is built on images that unite amorous and economic activities in the rituals of dating lovemaking and marriage Since the early 1900s advertisers have tied the purchase of beauty products sports cars diet drinks and snack foods to success in love and happiness Illouz reveals that ultimately every cliché of romance from an intimate dinner to a dozen red roses is constructed by advertising and media images that preach a democratic ethos of consumption material goods and happiness are available to all Engaging and witty Illouz's study begins with readings of ads songs films and other public representations of romance and concludes with individual interviews in order to analyze the ways in which mass messages are internalized Combining extensive historical research interviews and postmodern social theory Illouz brings an impressive scholarship to her fascinating portrait of love in America To what extent are our most romantic moments determined by the portrayal of love in film and on TV Is a walk on a moonlit beach a moment of perfect romance or simply a simulation of the familiar ideal seen again and again on billboards and movie screens

Counterculture Green Andrew G. Kirk,2007 For many it was more than a publication it was a way of life The Whole Earth Catalog billed itself as Access to Tools and it grew from a Bay Area blip to a national phenomenon catering to hippies do it yourselfers and anyone interested in self sufficiency independent of mainstream America now known as living off the grid In recovering the history of the Catalog's unique brand of environmentalism historian Kirk recounts how Stewart Brand and the Point Foundation promoted a philosophy of pragmatic environmentalism that celebrated technological achievement human ingenuity and sustainable living Kirk shows us that Whole Earth was more than a mere counterculture fad At a time when many of these ideas were seen as heretical to a predominantly wilderness based movement it became a critical forum for environmental alternatives and a model for how complicated ecological ideas could be presented in a hopeful and even humorous way From publisher description

Diagnoses of Our Time John A. Hall,1981 Unidentified Flying Object for Contemporary Architecture Beatrice Lampariello,Andrea Anselmo,Boris Hamzeian,2022-10-18 The first monographic publication focused on the Florentine UFO group 1968-1978 that conducts a historical analysis of its work reveals its close relationship with the contemporary artistic literary and architectural avant garde and finally investigates its legacy for the contemporary project The contemporary context is defined by a unique conjuncture On one hand we witness the revival of the Radical Architecture that from the avant garde experiments of the origins recovers creative processes and iconographic fragments while nullifying the original ideological and political values On the other hand we see social protests in defense of fundamental rights of democracy as in 1968 With these premises Architecture is now reinvestigating those ephemeral experiments that have endured half a century as new stone monuments capable of indicating new perspectives for both research and design Placing UFO group one of the authors of those still poorly known monuments at the core of the contemporary debate means investigating their formal and seductive aspects but also the ideological political and social values with which objects installations and happenings have been innervated transforming them into devices of an architecture nourished by literature art and political commitment for the foundation of an eloquent and activist project even more radical than the well known Superstudio and Archizoom The collaboration between Beatrice Lampariello an architecture historian specialized in the 1960s and 1970s and False Mirror Office a group of historians and designers engaged in the rediscovery of UFO group lead to a monograph focused on the UFO s work and an evaluation of their legacy relative to contemporary architecture This monograph is composed of three sections 1 History a first ever study of UFO by False Mirror Office via analysis of all archival and bibliographic sources as well as a series of interviews with UFO members and a collection of its writings published and unpublished for the first time translated into English 2 Context composed of essays by historians and architectural theorists Beatrice Lampariello Simon Sadler Anna Rosellini Giovanni Galli Jacopo Galimberti intended to place UFO s work in the context of the avant garde that influenced its work from the experience of Florentine Radical Architecture to Umberto Eco s theories on semiotics and the American experiences between Pop Art Video Art and Happening 3 Legacy articulated through graphic contribution and essays by young designers as False Mirror Office Parasite 2 0 Point Supreme Jimenez Lai Andrew Kovacs Adam Nathaniel Furman Traumnovelle ab Normal and Peter Behrbohm to investigate UFO s legacy relative to the contemporary revival of the most distinguishing creative processes and obsessions that shaped the so called Radical Architecture Contributions by Beatrice Lampariello Boris Hamzeian and Andrea Anselmo False Mirror Office Gloria Castellini False Mirror Office Simon Sadler Anna Rosellini Giovanni Galli Jacopo Galimberti Filippo Fanciotti and Giovanni Glorialanza False Mirror Office Parasite 2 0 Point Supreme Jimenez Lai Bureau Spectacular Andrew Kovacs Adam Nathaniel Furman Traumnovelle ab Normal Peter Behrbohm Daniel Bell and the Agony of Modern Liberalism Nathan Liebowitz,1985-06-25 American Virtues Jean M. Yarbrough,1998 Beginning with the Declaration of Independence this analysis of Thomas Jefferson s moral and political philosophy focuses exclusively on the full range of moral civic and intellectual virtues that form the American character Morality Politics in American Cities Elaine B. Sharp,Yvette M. Alex-Assensoh,2005 Topless bars casino gambling needle exchange programs for drug addicts there is no question morality issues remain front and center in urban politics Presenting a systematic analysis of culture war issues at the local level Elaine Sharp shows how American cities deal with these ongoing concerns Drawing on a sample of ten strategically chosen cities she explains differences in how municipalities respond to controversies surrounding sex business abortion clinics legalized gambling gay rights and drug use By analyzing the relative importance of subculture economics and institutional arrangements in the disputes she points the way toward richer and more complete understanding of how different cities respond differently to these hot button issues Far more than a statistical study Morality Politics in American Cities is a collection of fascinating stories of real people grappling with down to earth issues and real life drama richly informative case studies that will captivate students and interested citizens alike Mayors public health directors activists and others speak their minds about the pros and cons of these controversies Here are officials in one city confronting the Vatican over funding for abortion services those in another battling a local university over its refusal to provide health benefits to gay partners of faculty members and still others mounting a massive community sponsored attack on topless clubs These stories provide detailed evidence to support classifications needed for comparing cities experience with each of the five morality issues They also corroborate inferences drawn from the comparisons by showing what considerations were in play as local officials grappled with these issues Overall the study shows that cultural factors usually dominate policymaking in local politics except when specific economic interests are at stake and also observes that county level governments are more important than previously thought in terms of morality issue decisions As provocative as it is informative Morality Politics in American Cities demonstrates that such issues same sex marriage for example are multidimensional and often difficult to resolve Its conclusions however contingent mark an important step in the ongoing process of understanding important differences in approaches to these issues and clearly show how moral conflicts continue to define American politics

A Radical Democratic Critique of Capitalist Education Richard A. Brosio, 1994 Winner of 1994 AESA Critics Award This book offers a sober assessment of power in the U S and its K 12 public schools In spite of impressive democratic achievements in schools and society the hegemonic and raw power of antidemocratic capitalism is significantly greater The author's critical analysis which owes a debt to the Western tradition of radical democracy suggests that hegemony and repression are inextricably connected therefore the hopes for a more genuinely democratic polity and supportive education are problematic An unflinchingly tough evaluation of the realities and complexities of antidemocratic power and practice is of crucial importance to present democratic projects and the hope for their successful realization in our schools and extramural sites The challenge of postmodern thought to democratic aspirations is considered also

Enduring Liberalism Robert Booth Fowler, 1999 Enduring Liberalism pursues two objectives One it explores the political thought of public intellectuals and the general public since the 1960s Two it assesses contemporary and classic interpretations of American political thought in light of the study's findings BOOK JACKET The Cultural Contradiction of
