Cultural Capital The Problem Of Literary Canon Formation:

Cultural Capital John Guillory,1993 The final chapter of Cultural Capital examines recent theories of value judgment which have strongly reaffirmed cultural relativism as the necessary implication of canon critique Contrasting the relativist position with Pierre Bourdieu's very different sociology of judgment Guillory concludes that the object of a revisionary critique of aesthetic evaluation should not be to discredit judgment but to reform the conditions of its practice in the schools by universalizing access to the means of literary production and consumption Cultural Capital John Guillory,1993

Between Biblical Criticism and Poetic Rewriting Samuel Tongue,2014-04-17 In Between Biblical Criticism and Poetic Rewriting Samuel Tongue offers an account of the aesthetic and critical tensions inherent in the development of the Higher Criticism of the Bible Different types of Bible are created through the intellectual and literary pressures of Enlightenment and Romanticism and as Tongue suggests it is this legacy that continues to orientate the approaches deemed legitimate in biblical scholarship Using a number of ancient and contemporary critical and poetic rewritings of Jacob's struggle with the angel Gen 32:22-32 Tongue makes use of postmodern theories of textual production to argue that it is the paragesis a parasitical form of writing between disciplines that best foregrounds the complex performativity of biblical interpretation Critical Approaches to American Working-Class Literature Michelle Tokarczyk,2012-03-29

Critical Approaches to American Working Class Literature is the first anthology to focus on literary criticism of working class American literature The literature examined is from the 1850s to the present and includes work in several genres Several prominent scholars have contributed and emerging scholars are represented as well Constructing a New Canon of Post-1980s Indian English Fiction Sahdev Luhar, Madhurita Choudhary,2017-08-21 The literary canon implies the evaluation or estimation of certain literary texts as the most important during a particular time The canon is not merely a set of texts it is a set of standards evaluative procedures and values Belonging to a canon confers a guarantee of literary greatness A canon is formed by a particular group to channelize cultural hegemony over others or can be constructed by a governed group to bring about cultural symmetry The rise of diverse literatures in English in different parts of the world after the colonial rule of England was the consequence of an urge to articulate a cultural equilibrium or an urge to strike back The process of canon formation is also a focused and bigoted act and is always carried out to accomplish certain self-centred objectives It is commonly accepted that canon formation is executed to accomplish or naturalize certain ideological functions In the sphere of Indian English literature Indian English fiction after the end of the 1980s has emerged as a new canon This book looks into the process of literary canon formation in Indian universities and examines such fiction as an alternative literary canon and as an anti-imperialistic response to the British literary canon The book ascertains the anti-imperialistic design involved in forming the canon of post-1980 Indian English fiction examines the gradual emerging trends in such fiction and discerns the role of language culture and native ethos in the formation of a canon It also differentiates post 1980s Indian English fiction from British fiction bhasa fiction and even from pre 1980s Indian English fiction Key Issues in Creative Writing Dianne Donnelly, Graeme Harper, 2012-11-14 Key Issues in Creative Writing explores a range of important issues that inform the practice and understanding of creative writing The collection considers creative writing learning and teaching as well as creative writing research Contributors target debates that arise because of the nature of creative writing These experts from the UK USA and Australia specifically examine creative writing as a subject in universities and colleges and discuss both the creative knowledge and the critical understanding informing the subject and its future Finally this volume suggests ways in which addressing current issues will produce significant disciplinary knowledge that will contribute to the success of creative writing in current and future academic environments

Humanism and Good Books in Sixteenth-Century England Katherine C. Little, 2023 Explores the mindset in which people approached reading and writing in the sixteenth century specifically the idea that reading books was good for you in the sense that it was morally useful and informative

The Canonical Debate Today Liviu Papadima, David Damrosch David Damrosch, Theo D'haen Theo D'haen, 2011-03-10 The Canonical Debate Today Crossing Disciplinary and Cultural Boundaries re-enacts the canonical issues current in the 90s from a new perspective triggered by the changes that occurred worldwide in understanding the concepts and the status of theory in the legacy of literary studies within the field of humanities and in cultural production and reception During the last decade discussions of globalization mostly took into account its impact on the status of academic disciplines such as comparative literature or cultural studies or the reconfiguration of national literary fields These debates do not dispense with canonicity altogether but make it more urgent and necessary Canons seen as sets of norms or regulatory practices are central to the formation of disciplines to the recognition and transmission of values even to the articulation of discourses on identity on various levels The three sections of the volume deal with three interrelated subjects theories and applicable contexts of the canon Canons and Contexts recent transformations in the area of literary studies in response to the task of canon formation Reshaping Literary Studies and the challenges brought to the understanding of the canon s by the current process of re-defining literary and cultural boundaries Transgressing Literary and Cultural Boundaries This volume will appeal to researchers teachers and students of cultural studies comparative literature and literary theory

Cultural Memory Studies Astrid Erll, Ansgar Nünning, Sara B. Young, 2008 This handbook represents the interdisciplinary and international field of cultural memory studies for the first time in one volume Articles by renowned international scholars offer readers a unique overview of the key concepts of cultural memory studies The handbook not only documents current research in an unprecedented way it also serves as a forum for bringing together approaches from areas as varied as sociology political sciences history theology literary studies media studies philosophy psychology and neurosciences Cultural memory studies as defined in this handbook came into being at the beginning of the 20th century with the works of Maurice Halbwachs on mmoire collective. In the course of the last two decades this area of research has witnessed a veritable boom in various countries and disciplines. As a consequence the study of the relation of culture and memory has diversified into a wide range of approaches. This handbook is based on a broad understanding of cultural memory as the interplay of present and past in sociocultural contexts. It presents concepts for the study of individual remembering in a social context, group and family memory, national memory, the various media of memory, and finally the host of emerging transnational lieux de mmoire such as 9/11.
