Cultural Change in Postwar Taiwan Stevan Harrell, 1994 Cultural Change In Postwar Taiwan Stevan Harrell, 2019-03-13 With its increasing wealth a growing and better educated urban population and one of the world's largest trade surpluses Taiwan has shed its identity as an impoverished war-torn nation and joined the ranks of developed countries Yet despite the attention focused on the country's profound transformation surprisingly little information exists Taiwan in Transformation 1895-2005 Chun-chieh Huang, 2017-07-12 The last decade of the twentieth century witnessed rapid changes not only in global politics but also in Taiwan's quests for new identities The notorious martial law was lifted in July 1987 and long repressed calls for democratization began to be heard that caught worldwide attention In tandem with economic transformation the entire world of thought in Taiwan underwent significant changes Both economic and ideological restructuring have been basic elements of transformation in postwar Taiwan However rapid democratization has opened a Pandora's box and stirred a whirlwind of discord This volume elaborates on the where from and the where to of the Taiwan transformation and attempts to answer such questions as Is the old Taiwanese work ethic just a relic of the past Is Taiwan going to become an Armageddon of ideological wars Chapters deal with the vicissitudes of Taiwanese nostalgia for cultural China postwar Taiwan in historical perspective in particular the rise and fall of the agrarian culture the transformation of farmers social consciousness in the period 1950-1970 Confucianism in postwar Taiwan historical philosophical and sociological the case of Hsu Fu kuan which provides an epic case of the intertwining of cultural crisis with personal crisis the development and metamorphoses of Taiwanese consciousness in the unfolding political context the awakening of the self and finally mutual historical understanding as the basis for Taiwan Mainland relations in the twenty-first century Taiwan in Transformation seeks to show that historical insights extrapolated from an understanding of history are essential for grasping and solving the basic problems facing Taiwan at present including the Taiwan Mainland relationship in the twenty-first century It will be of interest to Chinese area specialists sociologists and historians Religion in Modern Taiwan Philip Clart, Charles B. Jones, 2003-09-30 Religion in Modern Taiwan takes a new look at Taiwan's current religious traditions and their fortunes during the twentieth century Beginning with the cession of Taiwan to Japan in 1895 and the currents of modernization that accompanied it the essays move on to explore the developments that have taken place as Buddhists Daoists Christians non-Han aborigines and others have confronted resisted and adapted to even thrived in the many upheavals of the modern period An overview of Taiwan's current religious scene is followed by a comprehensive look at the state of religion in the country prior to the end of World War II and the return of Taiwan to Chinese sovereignty The remaining essays probe aspects of change within individual religious traditions The final chapter analyzes changes that took place in the scholarly study and interpretation of religion in Taiwan during the course of the twentieth century Religion in Modern Taiwan will be read with interest by students and scholars of Chinese religion religion in Taiwan the modern history
