Cultural Critique Issue Number 20:

Feminist Literary and Cultural Criticism Java Singh, 2022-06-19 Feminist Literary and Cultural Criticism explores inter disciplinary connections across Cultural Anthropology Geography Psychology and feminist literary criticism to develop a theoretical framework for spatial criticism Using the spatial gynocritics framework developed in the book it analyzes selected texts from five different genres short story novel film cartoons and OTT series created by women The creators discussed in the book constitute a transnational collectivity of women that shares common concerns about gender environment technology and social hierarchies They comprise a geographically and linguistically diverse group from India Uruguay Spain Argentina and the USA The book offers immense potential for a comparative study on numerous aspects among which the present work concentrates on the treatment of Space demonstrating that spatial logic and grammar are essential elements of the feminist praxis The book reveals the unexamined potential in the women creators praxis of destabilizing decentring and destroying the ascribed centres around which social arrangements are structured Moreover the book offers valuable analytic tools that add to scholarship in literary theory comparative cultural studies comparative literature gender studies feminist criticism and interdisciplinary humanities It is an indispensable aid to students and faculty in these areas of study enabling them to critique texts from a fresh perspective

A Cultural History of Tragedy in the Modern Age Jennifer Wallace, 2021-05-20 In this book leading scholars come together to provide a comprehensive wide ranging overview of tragedy in theatre and other media from 1920 to the present The 20th century is often considered to have witnessed the death of tragedy as a theatrical genre but it was marked by many tragic events and historical catastrophes from two world wars and genocide to the proliferation of nuclear weapons and the anticipation and onset of climate change The authors in this volume wrestle with this paradox and consider the degree to which the definitions forms and media of tragedy were transformed in the modern period and how far the tragic tradition updated in performance still spoke to 20th and 21st century challenges While theater remains the primary focus of investigation in this strikingly illustrated book the essays also cover tragic representation often re mediated fragmented and provocatively questioned in film art and installation photography fiction and creative non fiction documentary reporting political theory and activism Since 24 7 news cycles travel fast and modern crises cross borders and are reported across the globe more swiftly than in previous centuries this volume includes intercultural encounters various forms of hybridity and postcolonial tragic representations Each chapter takes a different theme as its focus forms and media sites of performance and circulation communities of production and consumption philosophy and social theory religion ritual and myth politics of city and nation society and family and gender and sexuality

The Oxford Critical and Cultural History of Modernist Magazines Peter Brooker, Andrew Thacker, 2009 The first full study of the role of little magazines and their contribution to the making of artistic modernism and the avant garde across Europe this volume is a major scholarly achievement of immense value to those interested in material culture of the twentieth century Form, Affect and Debt in Post-Celtic Tiger Irish Fiction Eoin Flannery, 2022-04-21 Based on readings of some of the leading literary voices in contemporary Irish writing this book explores how these authors have engaged with the events of Ireland's recent economic boom and the demise of the Celtic Tiger period and how they have portrayed the widespread and contrasting aftermaths Drawing upon economic literary criticism affect theory in relation to shame and guilt and the philosophy of debt this book offers an entirely original suit of perspectives on both established and emerging authors Through analyses of the work of writers including Donal Ryan Anne Haverty Claire Kilroy Dermot Bolger Deirdre Madden Chris Binchy Peter Cunningham Justin Quinn and Paul Murray author E in Flannery illuminates their formal and thematic concerns Paying attention to generic and thematic differences Flannery's analyses touch upon issues such as the politics of indebtedness temporality and narrative form the relevance of affect theory to understandings of Irish culture and society in an age of austerity and the relationship between literary fiction and the mechanics of high finance Insightful and original Form Affect and Debt in Post Celtic Tiger Irish Fiction provides a seminal intervention in trying to grasp the cultural context and the literature of the Celtic Tiger period and its wake
