History Making and Present Day Politics Hans Erik Stolten, 2007 In this collection some of South Africa s most distinguished historians and social scientists present their views on the importance of history and heritage for the transformation of the South African society Although popular use of history helped remove apartheid the study of history lost status during the transition process Some of the reasons for this like the nature of the negotiated revolution social demobilization and individualization are analyzed in this book The combination of scholarly work with an active role in changing society has been a central concern in South African history writing This book warns against the danger of history being caught between reconciliation commercialization and political correctness Some of the articles critically examine the role of historians in ideological debates on gender African agency Afrikaner anti communism early South African socialism and the role of the business world during late apartheid Other contributions explore continuing controversies on the politics of public history in post apartheid South Africa describe the implementation of new policies for history education or investigate the use of applied history in the land restitution process and in the TRC The authors also examine a range of new government and private initiatives in the practical use of history including the establishment of new historical entertainment parks and the conversion of museums and heritage sites For readers interested in nation building processes and identity politics this book provides valuable insight

History and Theory, 2002 Telling the Story of Mormon History William G. Hartley, 2004 Proceedings from the 2002 symposium of the Joseph Fielding Smith Institute for Latter day Saint History at Brigham Young University Current Contents Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia), 1999 History After the Three Worlds Arif Dirlik, Vinay Bahl, Peter Gran, 2000-11-22 This ambitious volume provides a comparative perspective on the challenges facing the discipline of history as Eurocentrism fades as a lens for viewing the world Exploring the state of history and the struggle over its ownership throughout the world the authors address the issues of globalization postmodernism and postcolonialism that have been largely ignored by practicing historians despite their importance to cultural studies and their relevance to history Engaging in a vigorous critique of Eurocentrism the volume at the same time reaffirms the importance of historical ways of knowing Recomposing History Juan R. Hernandez, 2007 Unmasking the Crimes of the Powerful Steve Tombs, David Whyte, 2003 Despite the enormous economic physical and social impacts of crimes committed by states and corporations they are still relatively under researched within contemporary social science partly because of the perpetrator s ability to evade critical scrutiny The contributions in this book map out the parameters of a political economy of researching the powerful marking out the major problems encountered and identifying ways in which these problems might be overcome or circumnavigated To this end the book brings together original essays which reflect upon researching the powerful in Britain Canada Finland Ireland Spain Turkey and the United States Together these chapters advance our understandings of what corporate and state power is how this power operates and how it might be more effectively resisted
