Cultural Tapestry Readings For A Pluralistic Society:

Cultural Tapestry Faun Bernbach Evans, Barbara Gleason, Mark Wiley, 1992 This multicultural reader contains 85 accessible readings with a non biased political stance and composition orientated apparatus It is divided into nine thematic chapters each focusing on a different aspect of American culture Its concluding chapter encourages students to see the tapestry as a whole The apparatus is constructed to help students gain broader perspectives by comparing readings both within each chapter and throughout the entire text Contributors include Ishmael Reed Alice Walker V S Naipaul Garrison Keillor Gloria Steinham Martin Luther King Jr Kurt Vonnegut Jr and Oscar Hijuelos

Literature and Ethnic Discrimination Michael J. Meyer, 2023-11-27 Even though universities and colleges make a concerted effort to foster unity and worldwide acceptance of different ethnicities by including politically correct literature in their curriculums their attempts to protect students from being exposed to texts that portray discrimination and exhibit racial insensitivity are futile and ill advised Texts that contain biases based on otherness continue to be written and those produced in the past remain relevant and still demand the attention of an audience of reader In order to see the full picture of the world in which they live students must face even that which is uncomfortable and disturbing To think otherwise is to create an academic environment that is totally idealistic and distorts the fact that ethnic discrimination has been a potent reality in every society in history and remains so today These studies in this volume allow readers to meet writers from the traditional American and European canon while also being exposed to third world writers whose work may be unfamiliar They include memoirs of Holocaust survivors and even record the silencing of Italian women Apartheid in South Africa and tribal conflict in Nigeria as well as transplanted Asian culture in Canada and the idolization of the black body in Japan The collection permits a viewing of the ethnic other not merely in a politically correct way in which one samples the differences and nods approvingly Rather its intent is to offer opportunities for contemplative assessment of authorial motives and goals thereby engendering a wealth of understanding based on active engagement rather than passive acceptance of the status quo

City Comp Bruce McComiskey, Cynthia Ryan, 2012-02-01 This is the first full length collection in composition studies to tell the story of teaching and writing in urban universities in cities such as Birmingham Pittsburgh Chicago San Francisco Las Vegas Atlanta and Detroit Bruce McComiskey and Cynthia Ryan visit the fascinating history of various urban universities to illustrate how specific writing programs and instructors have engaged in the changing missions and priorities of their institutions The authors address the complex interwoven components of city comp the identities of individuals and institutions that contribute to the writing of verbal visual and spatial texts the spaces that serve as resources for student writing analysis and critique and the curriculum practices implemented in programs that attempt to help students recognize and in some cases transform their understandings of the cities in which they live learn and compose

Richard Wright Kenneth Kinnamon, 2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright 1908 1960 was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography

Black Boy and fiction Native Son By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays books and articles from 1983 through 2003 Arranged alphabetically by author within years are some 8 320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author s earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics
