Spaces and Places in Motion Nicole Schröder,2006

Longing in Belonging Suzan Ilcan,2002-04-30 The mobilization of people populations and places and the social interrelations of space and time memory and longing and the global and local are uniquely analyzed in this fascinating study. Instead of viewing social and cultural relations through the lenses of rigid institutions, fixed territories or rooted communities, Ilcan focuses on mobile sites to explore the cultural politics of settlement. This book examines the social relations of longing and belonging to be found in nation building, ethnographic practices, dwelling and diasporas. Ilcan propels us into various dimensions of movement as well as social relations in the fields of dispersion, transition and displacement. Drawing on insights from cultural studies, sociology and anthropology, she inquires into contemporary and critical issues on the movement of peoples. Transitional communities represent the tensions and risks confronting those compelled to leave home or those for whom a sense of longing superseded any feeling of belonging. This book provides fresh insight into the placement and displacement of particular social groups including guest workers, migrants and immigrants. Ilcan covers the varieties of diasporic relations and the settlements they form as well as the manifold ways in which they affect traditional practices of settlement. She considers the cultural, economic and political implications of globalization, evoking the struggle in our places of habitation and the strategies deployed to subvert our habits of settlement.

Perspectives On Global Culture Harindranath, Ramaswami, 2006-06-01. A cogent and incisive exploration of many of the key debates at the heart of postcolonial cultural studies with a timely focus on the underside of the much hyped process of globalisation. David Morley, Professor of Communications, Goldsmiths College, UK.

Rawaswami Harindranath's lively book provides us with a comprehensive and engaging overview of the views from the margins in the global debate about globalisation and culture. Written with admirable clarity, this book fills in the blind spots of much Western theorising of the underside of globalisation and makes a forceful argument for a truly critical and non Eurocentric cosmopolitanism. Professor Ien Ang, ARC Professorial Fellow, University of Western Sydney.

This book explores significant aspects of the cultural and social impact of globalization on the developing world by examining intellectual contributions and cultural expression in Latin America, Africa and South and South East Asia. How do we understand and conceptualize the underside of globalization? How can voices from the margins challenge dominant discourses? In what ways do culture wars contribute to the politics of nationalism, indigeneity and race? The book surveys key debates on the politics of representation and cultural difference, paying particular attention to issues such as subalternity, cultural nationalism, third cinema, multiculturalism and indigenous communities. It offers an original synthesis of ideas on these topics and traces the lines of connection between national, cultural and political projects during anti-colonial struggles and more contemporary forms of national and transnational cinema and television. Harindranath invites us to consider non-metropolitan cultural forms in the context of contemporary issues relating to the politics of difference.

Perspectives on Global Culture is important reading for students and researchers in media and cultural studies and sociology as well as for those interested in debates on race and ethnicity.

Where Asia Smiles Sally Ann Ness, 2003. Anyone who has been to Manila, Bali or Bangkok is aware of the plight of the locals who despise and yet want the presence of tourists. Ness focuses on the Philippines to examine the delicate balance between preserving one's way of life while being open to the increasing demands of tourism Choice

Postcolonial Subjectivities in Africa Pnina Werbner, 2002 These essays on postcolonial subjectivities cross the frontiers of critical theory by illuminating the contradictory predicaments Africans confront in strikingly different parts of the continent at the start of the 21st century The focus is on the making of subjectivities as a process which is political a matter of subjugation to state authority moral reflected in the conscience and agency of subjects who bear rights duties and obligations and realised existentially in the subjects consciousness of their personal or intimate relations The notion of agency is interrogated without lapsing into the new Afro pessimism The essays recognise postcolonies troubled by state decline and increasing exploitation dispossession and marginalisation but avoid Afro pessimism's reduction of subjects to mere victims Even more against the grain of conventional postcolonial studies is the radical questioning of the force of modern subjectivism in struggles for control of identity autonomy and explicit consciousness and through artistic self fashioning in globally driven consumption With substantial cases based on autobiography personal experience and long term scholarly fieldwork in countries as diverse as Madagascar Kenya Uganda Sudan Botswana and Cameroon the book opens out a fresh field for comparative research and theory on postcolonial transformations in intersubjectivity This is to take seriously the people's perception so widespread in postcolonial Africa that to live life to the full is to live it in interdependence in conviviality if possible that care and respect for others indeed civility is a precious and indeed precarious condition of survival and as such is the object of recognised strategies for its conscious defence and that because significant others are opaque never being totally knowable uncertainty ambivalence and contingency are inescapable conditions of human
