Multicultural Nationalism Asifa M. Hussain,William L. Miller,2006-07-20 When the focus is on black or Asian minorities Britain is frequently described as a multi cultural state But when the focus is on Scotland England and Wales Britain is also described as a multi national state Yet debates about multiculturalism and nationalism have been held in parallel without sharing even a common vocabulary This book is a pioneering study of how multiculturalism interacts with multinationalism especially within post devolution Scotland It gives equal attention to Scotland s largest visible and invisible minorities ethnic Pakistanis almost all of them Muslim and English immigrants Rising

Scottish self consciousness could have posed a challenge both these minorities But in practice potential problems have proved themselves to be solutions integrating rather than alienating In the eyes of the minorities devolution has made Scots at once more proud and less xenophobic Even English immigrants feel devolution has defused tensions calmed frustrations and forced Scots to blame themselves rather than others for their problems Pakistanis have suffered increasing harassment but they attribute that to 9 11 not to devolution And Muslims adopt Scottish identities Scottish attitudes even Scottish nationalism consciously or unconsciously using these as tools of integration The book is based in part on large scale surveys of Pakistani and English minorities within Scotland and of the majority populations in Scotland and England But it is also based on systematic analysis of transcripts of focus group discussions with minorities revealing the variety of opinion within minorities as well as the contrasts between them In particular it presents a unique account of how Scottish Muslims express their feelings in a time of crisis
