The Church Explorer's Handbook Clive Fewins,2005 A fully illustrated pocket guide to UK churches and their contents

The Reign of God Jonathan Cole,2022-07-28 The Reign of God constitutes the first detailed and systematic critical engagement with Oliver O Donovan s political theology It argues that O Donovan s theological account of political authority is not tenable on the basis of exegetical and methodological problems The book goes on to demonstrate a way to refine O Donovan s theology of political authority by incorporating insights from his earlier work in moral theology This can provide a cogent basis for thinking that the Christ event redeems the natural political authority embedded in the created order and inaugurates its new historical bene esse in the form of Christian liberalism I. Singing at the Winepress Tyler Atkinson,2015-04-23

Atkinson uses Qoheleth s work ethic to provide an analysis of Ecclesiastes utilising the writings of St Bonaventure and Martin Luther Reading Ecclesiastes within a penitential framework Bonaventure offers a version of the contemptus mundi tradition that is rooted in his metaphysics His commentary is ethically significant for the way he detects the vice of curiosity precipitating a perceptual rupture wherein vanity comes to signify sin and guilt Luther on the other hand interprets Solomon as a wise economic political administrator who preaches the good news of God s involvement in quotidian existence This understanding enables Luther to read Ecclesiastes eschatologically with labour being seen as a locus of divine activity One may thus read Solomon s refrain as an invitation to labour with the expectation of receiving God s gifts in the present Finally Atkinson suggests that Ecclesiastes enhances current conversations regarding the theology and ethics of work by working the doctrinal foci of protology and eschatology through Christology The presence of the Word then can be found now only in the preaching and sacraments of the church but also in the labour of the worker Punch Mark Lemon,Henry Mayhew,Tom
