Contemporary Canadian Women's Fiction C. Howells,2003-08-22 This book charts the significant changes in contemporary Canada s literary profile since the mid 1990s within a context of the new national rhetoric of multiculturalism By looking closely at a representative range of fictions in English by women from a variety of ethnocultural backgrounds Howells examines the complexities embedded within Canadian identity What does Refiguring Identities mean for these writers given their individual agendas and the multiple affiliation of any woman s identity construction All these writers are engaged in rewriting history across generation and Howells argues that woman s fiction negotiates new possibilities for cultural change introducing more heterogeneous narratives of identity in multi cultural Canada Magical Feminism in the Americas: Resisting Female Marginalisation and Oppression through Magic Abu Shahid Abdullah,2025-01-07 The book aims to show the way magical feminism resists female marginalisation and oppression in the Americas Dealing with multiple victimisation of women in the Americas who have suffered not only because of their gender but also their race ethnicity political ideology social status financial insecurity and such magical feminism provides a voice to them so that they can speak about their marginalisation and victimisation In other words by using magical feminism these female authors attempt to give a voice to the oppressed women enabling them to resist and challenge the traditional female role and to raise their voices against various social and political issues The subversive and transgressive power of magical feminism enables the oppressed women to break patriarchal constraints and to reverse the traditional power structure By creating an imaginary realm through traditions local beliefs and rituals myth magic and the spirits of the dead ancestors as guides magical feminist technique functions as a survival strategy for women in traumatic and oppressive situations and provides them consolation The project includes a total of eight novels from African American Gloria Naylor s Mama Day Latin American Isabel Allende s The House of the Spirits Native American Louise Erdrich s Tracks Chicana Ana Castillo s So Far from God North American Gail Anderson Dargatz s The Cure for Death by Lightning Central American Gioconda Belli s The Inhabited Woman Hawaiian American Kiana Davenport s Shark Dialogues and Cuban American Cristina Garc a s Dreaming in Cuban background

Ahornblätter ,2007 Women's Movement Heidi Slettedahl Macpherson,2000 Women s Movement critically explores the transgressive potential of feminist escape narratives and argues that they are almost by definition radically different from paradigmatic male escape narratives. While definitions of escape are necessarily broad, they have too often excluded the ambiguous escape the escape most closely associated with the female. Indeed, feminist escape narratives often resist a happy ending and Women's Movement argues that these narrative closures reflect the changing face of feminism as it sheds its old certainties, is faced with a monumental backlash, and is refigured as the potentially less threatening postfeminism. Resisting the automatic association of escape with escapist Women's Movement analyzes male adventure and quest narratives including Moby Dick, The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, Blood Meridian, and Deliverance before turning to a range of feminist texts. While being the first book to give critical attention to some postfeminist novels, Women's Movement more often acts as a channel for offering different ways of approaching familiar feminist texts, including among others Marian Engel's Bear, Atwood's Surfacing and The Handmaid's Tale, Joan Barfoot's Gaining Ground and Dancing in the Dark, Anne Tyler's Earthly Possessions and Ladder of Years, Marilynne Robinson's Housekeeping, Erica Jong's Fear of Flying, and Margaret Laurence's The Diviners.
