Current Issues In Eu Integration:

Current Economic Issues in EU Integration M. Baimbridge, J. Harrop, G. Philippidis, 2004-08-23 This book examines selected pertinent topics on issues relating to current and future EU developments In its initial sections the book focuses on an array of wide ranging micro agriculture industry and competition and macro EMU regional convergence and enlargement issues A final section is reserved for discussion on Britain's future relationship with the EU In particular the book posits possible alternative strategies e.g. NAFTA membership and policy frameworks and examines these from both a theoretical and empirical perspective Current Challenges of European Integration Andreas Kellerhals, Tobias Baumgartner, 2021-08-24 Crises have long been a recurring feature of European integration In many cases further steps toward integration have only been possible under the pressure of such crises However in recent years the EU has faced multiple overlapping crises at times calling the integration process itself into question In 2015 the eurozone crisis escalated to the point where for the first time a member state faced the possibility of exiting the eurozone At the same time the massive influx of refugees into the EU exposed significant shortcomings in both the Schengen area and the common asylum policy Finally the British referendum on 23 June 2016 resulted in a majority vote in favor of Brexit marking the first ever departure of a member state from the EU Against this backdrop the 12th Network Europe conference examined the numerous challenges facing the EU as well as potential future scenarios for European integration The publication includes contributions from Andr S Berne Jelena Ceranic Perisic Viorel Cibotaru Alex de Ruyter Ivana Kunda Tobias Lock Lee McGowan Peter Christian M ller Graff Tatjana Muravska and Attila Vincze Network Europe was founded in 2003 by the Europa Institute at the University of Zurich with support from the Swiss government It serves as a forum for scholarly exchange on legal and political aspects of European integration bringing together researchers from across Europe Key Controversies in European Integration Hubert Zimmermann, Andreas Dür, 2021-03-03 Is the EU a success or a failure Should It Stay or Should It Go Britain and the EU The Big Waste or Essential to Feed Europe The Common Agricultural Policy Observers of the European Union could be forgiven in thinking that since its inception the EU project has been under threat from near constant crises In recent years controversial issues such as EU enlargement the fallout from the Eurozone crisis migration policies Brexit and the Corona pandemic have tested the EU to its limits and divided public opinion in the process The major third edition of this comprehensive textbook on the EU seeks to introduce the integration project by looking at the thorny debates politicians European citizens and the media contend with on a daily basis Well known for its unique and pedagogically innovative key debates format the editors have invited top names in the field to contribute a stirring contribution either for or against each of the toughest political questions the EU faces In doing so not only does it offer a broad introduction to all the key concerns of the Union but it does so in a way that is contemporary engaging and designed to spark controversy New to this Edition All chapters fully revised and updated New chapter on the transatlantic partnership All chapters now with key takeaway points Across all controversies more inclusion of mainstream gender and feminist approaches

Is the European Union Capable of Integrating Diverse Models of Capitalism? Alison Johnston, Aidan Regan, 2021-03-30 The 2009 European sovereign debt crisis and the EU's policy response to it have prompted scholars to re-think whether diverse national models of capitalism can thrive within the European Union EU Are some national economic systems better suited to adapt to European integration than others and if so why Contributions within this volume provide a qualified yes to these questions raised concluding that the EU favors export led growth models while it penalizes and discourages domestic consumption oriented growth paths particularly those that are financed by debt accumulation The book questions whether the EU is capable of integrating these diverse capitalist regimes This volume adds a comparative capitalism perspective to EU integration scholarship in order to demonstrate that ever closer union is not capable of accommodating diversity in national economic institutions Chapters in this volume provide an innovative framework for understanding what factors related to European integration impede the economic and political integration of diverse European market economies While recent comparative capitalism literature highlights that European monetary integration has favored export led growth regimes contributions in this volume outline that the EU's prioritization of export led growth over domestic demand led growth is present in other facets of integration including EU accession financial integration the free movement of people fiscal governance and the Europe 2020 growth strategy The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of New Political Economy

European Integration and Environmental Policy J. D. Liefferink, Philip Lowe, A. P. J. Mol, 1993 In the past two decades environmental policy has emerged as a major field of action in the European Community It is recognised that the liberalisation and integration of the European market should be matched by common environmental measures The process of environmental policy making in the Community is characterised by a delicate interplay of political agendas institutional relations and regulatory cultures at national a transnational levels This interplay is the subject of the present book

The New European Union Steve Wood, Stephen Wood, Wolfgang Quaisser, 2008 This concise but wide ranging work explores the major political economic and strategic challenges confronting the European Union in the context of a rapidly changing geopolitical environment Steve Wood and Wolfgang Quaisser consider the actors and issues at the center of current developments in the integration process Beginning with some basic conceptual questions for example what is Europe they focus on the Union's increasingly complex politics and economy Their discussion ranges from political economy to policy reform and institutional change to the arena of international relations They also address the more intangible factors of European identity and common political will An intriguing set of possible future scenarios concludes the authors up to date examination of the EU after enlargement
