Rickett, Ross Grantham, 2008-02-27 Peter Birks's tragically early death and his immense influence around the world led immediately to the call for a volume of essays in his honour by scholars who had known him as a colleague teacher and friend One such volume published in 2006 contained essays largely from scholars working in England Mapping the Law Essays in Memory of Peter Birks edited by Andrew Burrows and Lord Rodger This volume contains the essays of those outside England who chose to honour Peter and appears later than the English volume reflecting the far flung habitations of its authors The essays contained in this volume are focussed around the law of unjust enrichment but are not narrowly preoccupied instead they move freely from unjust enrichment to some of the most profound questions in private law concerning taxonomy the relationship between contract property and unjust enrichment and the place of remedies within private law This volume featuring the work of some of the world s great private lawyers provides a fitting tribute to a great scholar and a series of thought provoking essays inspired by his example Contributors Kit Barker Michael Bryan Peter Butler Hanoch Dagan Simone Degeling Daniel Friedmann Mark Gergen Ross Grantham Steve Hedley John McCamus Mitchell McInnes Eoin O Dell Charles Rickett Struan Scott Emily Sherwin Stephen Smith Richard Sutton Michael Tilbury Stephen Waddams Peter Watts Ernest Weinrib Eric Descheemaeker

On Crime, Society, and Responsibility in the Work of Nicola Lacey Iyiola Solanke, 2021

Few contemporary scholars have done more in their work to develop the idea of responsibility than Nicola Lacey She ranks alongside thinkers and writers such as HLA Hart and Antony Honor in developing approaches to understanding responsibility Like these authors the influence of her work has spread beyond academia to change the perception of responsibility amongst practitioners Both Hart and Honor have during their lifetime had volumes dedicated to their work This book does the same for Nicola Lacey marking her ongoing influence and accomplishments in the common law world through a collection of essays by leading international scholars reflecting and interrogating her contribution to understanding criminal responsibility Additionally the book aims to promote the best legal scholarship on responsibility in the common law world and inspire the brightest legal scholars through a collection of essays designed to mark Professor Lacey s ongoing contribution to the understanding of criminal responsibility The role of Professor Lacey s work in this area as well as others cannot be overlooked her scholarship includes not only a prize winning biography of HLA Hart himself but numerous articles and tomes on the subject culminating with her most recent work In Search of Criminal Responsibility Ideas Interests and Institutions OUP 2016 This Festschrift one of few common law publications to pay homage to the erudition of a female jurist can be seen as a continuation of the themes in this book via reflection and interrogation of her work by leading scholars on the topic The Festschrift will therefore not only be a celebration of her work but also an attempt to take forward intellectual engagement with the topic of responsibility by continued engagement with her ideas Each author brings new ideas to bear on her work touching upon important aspects of responsibility that are current in the scholarship categorization frameworks for understanding criminal responsibility and the relationships between them women in criminal law the history of criminal law blameworthiness and ascriptions of responsibility moral responsibility the role of politics and political economy Nicola Lacey is a School Professor of Law Gender and Social Policy From 1998 to 2010 she held a Chair in Criminal Law and Legal Theory at the LSE she returned to the LSE in 2013 after spending three years as Senior Research Fellow at All Souls College and Professor of Criminal Law and Legal Theory at the University of Oxford She has held a number of visiting appointments most recently at Harvard Law School and the Australian National University She is an Honorary Fellow of New College Oxford and University College Oxford and a Fellow of the British Academy In 2011 she was awarded the Hans

Sigrist Prize by the University of Bern for outstanding scholarship on the function of the rule of law in late modern societies and in 2018 an Honorary Doctorate by the University of Edinburgh In 2017 she was awarded a CBE for services to Law Justice and Gender Politics

The Politics of Systematization in EU Product Safety Regulation: Market, State, Collectivity, and Integration Kai Purnhagen, 2013-06-26 This book examines the increasing role of the legal method of systematisation in European Union EU law It argues that the legal method of systematisation that has been developed in a welfare state context is increasingly used as a regulative tool to functionally integrate the market The book uses the example of EU product regulation as a reference to illustrate the impact of systematisation on EU law It draws conclusions from this phenomenon and redefines the current place and origin of systematisation in the EU legal system It puts forward and demonstrates two main arguments First in certain sectors such as in EU product safety law the quality of EU law changes from a sector specific and reactive field of law to an increasingly coherent legal system at European level Therefore instead of punctual market intervention it increasingly governs whole market areas By doing so it challenges and often fully replaces the respective welfare based legal systems in the Member States for the benefit of the ideal of a market driven EU legal system Second at European level the ideal is in development This illustrates the change of the function of Statecraft from nation states to market states
