Cultivando Diversidad David Cooper, Renee Vellvé, Henk Hobbelink, 1994-11 Plant Genetic Resources in Latin America and the Caribbean Enrique Alarcón Alvarez, Luis G. Gonzalez, Jürgen Carls, 1998 Fitomejoramiento fisiológico I: enfoques interdisciplinarios para mejorar la adaptación del cultivo Reynolds, M.P., Pask, A.J.D., Mullan, D.M., Chavez-Dulanto, P.N., Tecnología para el cultivo de la Gulupa en Colombia (Passiflora edulis f. edulis Sims) John Ocampo, Krys, Wickhuys, 2012-03-19 El neotrópico es particularmente rico en frutales con alrededor de 1 100 especies destacándose la papaya la piña el aguacate y la guayaba A diferencia de las frutas tropicales de mayor importancia las pasifloras pertenecen a un género Passiflora L con gran diversidad de especies incluyendo más de 80 inventariadas que producen fruto comestible A pesar del éxito de algunas especies las pasifloras son todavía poco conocidas y solo algunas de ellas comestibles como el maracuy y la gulupa han sido difundidas fuera de las Américas En Colombia la producción frutícola se ha tecnificado notablemente en los últimos años debido a la creciente demanda nacional e internacional de frutas tropicales A pesar de esto el cultivo de la gulupa carece de conocimiento técnico y los paquetes tecnológicos han sido adoptados de otras pasifloras cultivadas como la granadilla y el maracuy Este documento va dirigido a investigadores técnicos y productores como una guía técnica de consulta para el establecimiento y manejo del cultivo En esta se describen las generalidades de la gulupa y las experiencias de campo recopiladas durante los últimos tres años en visitas realizadas a las principales zonas productoras del país Además por la generación de empleos y la alta rentabilidad este cultivo se debe ver como una gran alternativa de diversificación agrícola y de estabilidad social que evite el éxodo de nuestros campesinos a las grandes ciudades John Ocampo Impactos del Cambio Climático y los Sistemas de Producción Agroforestales IICA, PROCIANDINO, CORPOICA, REDISAF Colombia, A World without Famine? John Toye, Helen O'Neill, 1998-03-15 The proceedings of the Development Studies Association conference held in Dublin on the 150th anniversary of the Great Irish Famine examine the historical background and the reasons why the spectre of famine continues to haunt much of the developing world today Set in the context of the concepts of food security and insecurity it emphasises our moral responsibility to act collectively and to tackle less dramatic problems of food insecurity Ecology and Farming, 1993 Cultivar el carácter en la familia: una tarea ineludible. Josu Ahedo, Carmen Caro, Juan Luis Fuentes de la Corte, 2021 Quienes se adentren en la lectura de este libro escrito para padres madres y educadores en general descubrirán en la formación del carácter uno de los objetivos educativos esenciales en la actualidad donde la familia se sitúa en una posición aventajada y adquiere una responsabilidad ineludible A través de sus distintos capítulos se aborda un variado abanico de caminos por los que se invita a transitar al lector aportándole una perspectiva teórica y práctica sobre diferentes temas vinculados entre sí Así pues muestra que los amigos son un regalo para toda persona y al mismo tiempo una tarea por hacer aportando ideas para mejorar las habilidades sociales y comunicativas que faciliten el establecimiento de lazos de amistad Junto a ello se plantean

las bases para una educación sexual integral al tiempo que se propone la educación de la libertad como crucial para la generación de hábitos estables que formen el carácter. Se reflexiona sobre una concepción adecuada del complejo ejercicio de la autoridad y se profundiza en algunas de las experiencias fundamentales para el desarrollo humano como saber perdonar, ser capaz de agradecer y aprender a modular el carácter sobre la balanza de la sobriedad. Por último se abordan relevantes cuestiones del urgente reto de la educación ambiental desde el ámbito familiar y se detiene en las posibilidades para la difícil reconstrucción del vínculo afectivo en situaciones de vulnerabilidades como en la educación del carácter con menores con necesidades especiales. Un texto que nos facilita la lectura de manera continua a través de los distintos capítulos o de manera particular en cada uno de ellos si el lector busca la reflexión particular y profunda en un tema concreto. Este libro se erige en los trabajos del grupo de investigación El quehacer educativo como acción EDUCACIÓN de la Universidad Internacional de La Rioja. Ha sido financiado por dos de sus proyectos La educación del carácter como base de la formación integral de los estudiantes de secundaria y bachillerato 2018-2020 y El uso de las redes sociales y la formación en valores en la educación del carácter 2020-2022.
