Horizontal Art History and Beyond Agata Jakubowska, Magdalena Radomska, 2022-07-08 This book is devoted to the concept of horizontal art history, a proposal of a paradigm shift formulated by the Polish art historian Piotr Piotrowski in 1952-2015 that aims at undermining the hegemony of the discourse of art history created in the Western world. The concept of horizontal art history is one of many ideas on how to conduct nonhierarchical art historical analysis that have been developed in different geopolitical locations since at least the 1970s, parallel to the ongoing process of decolonization. This book is a critical examination of horizontal art history which provokes a discussion on the original concept of horizontal art history and possible methods to extend it. This is an edited volume written by international scholars who acknowledge the importance of the concept, share its basic assumptions, and are aware both of its advantages and limitations. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, art historiography, and postcolonial studies.

The Pragmatics of Literary Testimony Chantelle Warner, 2013 In this book, Warner examines a number of German language literary autobiographies that are connected to diverse social movements of the last forty years. These books have all received critical attention from the popular press, topped bestseller lists, and have been pivotal in discussions of authenticity, subjectivity, and referentiality. Because of the thematic diversity of these works, scholars within literary and cultural studies have tended to treat them separately under topical categories such as women's literature, the post-war generation, migration, and multiculturalism, etc. Underlying Warner's analysis is the belief that the social construction of autobiographical acts is as much a matter of textuality as it is of topicality, i.e. how language means rather than what it means, and that a pragmatic stylistic approach is well suited to describing how literary autobiographies come to function as testimonies to certain collective experiences. By presenting a model for an integrative stylistic approach, The Pragmatics of Literary Testimony participates in current discussions within fields of literary linguistics, scholarship, as well as autobiographical theory. In its analysis of key examples of German social testimonies from the late twentieth century, this book incorporates insights from discourse analysis, pragmatics, cognitive poetics, and sociolinguistics in order to demonstrate that this diverse body of works constitutes a particular form of
