Curfew And Other Stories:

Curfew and Other Stories Sean O'Reilly, 2001 Sean O'Reilly's characters inhabit a world that can seem dangerously indifferent to human feeling but alive to the thrills of living on the edge. Unnecessary risks are taken which are punished not obscured by family dangerous brothers and traditional hardened fathers wield power usually with brutality. The stories in what was O'Reilly's debut collection present us with a harsh and unsentimental view of the mundane underscored by moments of great beauty, humour and pathos.

The Irish Short Story at the Turn of the Twenty-First Century Madalina Armie, 2022-12-30 In the mid 1990s Ireland was experiencing the best of times. The Celtic Tiger seemed to instil in the national consciousness that poverty was a problem of the past. The impressive economic performance ensured that the Republic occupied one of the top positions among the world's economic powers. During the boom, dissident voices continuously criticised what they considered to be a mirage, identifying the precariousness of its structures and foretelling its eventual crash. The 2008 recession proved them right. Throughout this time the Irish contemporary short story expressed distrust. Enabled by its capacity to reflect change with immediacy and dexterity, the short story saw through the smokescreen created by the Celtic Tiger discourse of well-being. It reinterpreted and captured the worst and the best of the country and became a bridge connecting tradition and modernity. The major objective of this book is to analyse the interactions between fiction and reality during this period in Ireland by studying the short stories written by old and emergent voices published between the birth of the Celtic Tiger in 1995 up to its immediate aftermath in 2013.

Sinning with Annie and Other Stories Paul Theroux, 1990 Set in Asia, Africa, eastern Europe, Russian and even Boston, the stories in Sinning with Annie are vintage Theroux: a wry and witty collection of stories that eloquently express the joys and pains of the human experience.

The Ghost Ship and Other Stories Richard Middleton, 1913

Irish Contemporary Landscapes in Literature and the Arts M. Mianowski, 2011-12-06 Looking at representations of the Irish landscape in contemporary literature and the arts, this volume discusses the economic, political and environmental issues associated with it, questioning the myths behind Ireland's landscape from the first Greek descriptions to present-day post-Celtic Tiger architecture.
