Curing Nuclear Madness Frank G. Sommers, Tana Dineen, 1984 Events, Issues, and Actions R. G.

Williams, 2025-08-18 This book is a collection of contemporary essays that explore modern politics recent events and the world today Written over the past two decades these essays mix personal reflections and analysis with an attempt to understand the world The essays seek to understand our often troubled times and argue that by examining the events issues and realities around us we can perhaps build a better society a Democratic Socialist world Happier, No Matter What: Cultivating Hope, Resilience, and Purpose in Hard Times Tal Ben-Shahar, 2021-05-11 Even when everything is going wrong the science of happiness can help you Pioneering positive psychologist and New York Times bestselling author Tal Ben Shahar shows us how in Happier No Matter What Ben Shahar busts the all too common ideas that success brings happiness and that we can seek happiness itself When hard times thwart our success and steal our joy these ideas actually invite despair by leaving us with nothing to do But we can do something We can climb the SPIRE Ben Shahar's five step staircase to hope and purpose Spiritual I am experiencing meaning Physical My body's needs are met Intellectual I am learning Relational My friends support me Emotional I am allowed to feel By truly living these five elements of well being we build the resilience to carry us through anything from a personal loss to a global pandemic Ben Shahar's all new SPIRE method shows us the way to becoming whole again and when we're whole we invite happiness in The Canadian forum, 1984

Madness and Cure Robert Langs, 1985 Faith in Disaster Harold Munn, 2026-01-28 How to Build a Seatbelt of Joy for Climate Collapse and Faith Collapse For anyone who secretly believes we are too late to save the planet but hates saying so because it sounds so discouraging this book is very good news It's neither a dystopia nor a road map to fix the climate crisis but invites the reader into a transformed personal relational and planetary life far more powerful than the fear despair and denial which have become so pervasive Drawing courageously on very personal experiences of joy and fulfillment in times of his own despair the author suggests such gifts of deep hope aren't rare He describes how against all odds a near death experience at birth deep childhood loss and challenges in intimate relationships became rich seed beds for joy and fulfillment Additionally the atheist and believer who fell in love in the first book of this series now live together are deeply committed to fighting the climate crisis but fail in that commitment and in their relationship Yet mysteriously they find themselves immersed in joy and fulfillment through both failures In the final climactic scenes of the book we experience joy and meaning being returned to humanity through the very disaster that now threatens our hope and purpose The author uses the image of constructing a climate collapse seat belt woven from failure grief despair and strangely humility to describe how if climate collapse does happen we can be protected from all kinds of chaos and find ourselves buckled into deep joy and full life

Violence Bandy X. Lee, 2019-02-27 A comprehensive overview of the integrative study of violence Violence continues to be one of the most urgent global public health problems that contemporary society faces Suicides and homicides are increasing at an alarming rate particularly in younger age groups and lower income countries Historically the study of violence has been fragmented across disparate fields of study with little cross disciplinary collaboration thus creating a roadblock to decoding the underlying processes that give rise to violence and hindering efforts in research and prevention Violence An Interdisciplinary Approach to Causes Consequences and Cures assembles and organizes current information into one comprehensive volume introducing students to the multiple sectors disciplines and practices that collectively comprise the study of violence This innovative textbook presents a unified perspective that integrates the sociological biological politico economic structural and environmental underpinnings of violence Each chapter examines a distinct point of learning beginning with an overview of the content and concluding with discussion questions and an analytical summary The chapters focus on key domains of research encouraging interdisciplinary investigation and helping students to develop critical analytical skills and form their own conclusions Fills a significant gap in the field by providing a coherent text that consolidates information on the multiple aspects of violence Examines current legal medical public health and policy approaches to violence prevention and their application within a global context Illustrates how similar causes of violence may have dissimilar manifestations Presents a multidisciplinary examination of the symptoms and underlying processes of violence Offers a thorough yet accessible learning framework to undergraduate and graduate students without prior knowledge of the study of violence More than just an accumulation of facts and data this essential text offers a broad introduction to a thinking process that can produce rigorous scholarship across disciplines and lead to a deeper understanding of violence in its many forms Literacy Is Still Not Enough Nicky Mohan,Ian Jukes,Ryan L.

Ullmann,1985-06-17 John E Ullmann examines the underlying causes of the impending American economic blight Specifically he identifies the arms race as preempting technical talent and capital resources to the degree that it impairs the rest of the economy According to

Ullmann it is the confluence of related misunderstandings and rationalizations about military spending that have inhibited a proper response to current economic and technical challenges He demonstrates that solutions lie only in concentrating on direct action and physical realities on industrial redevelopment and technical needs and on the broader issues of the nature of work and its organization Through a discussion of individual industries and their problems Ullmann sets forth a series of proposals for their recovery and renewed progress Peace Research ,1988 A monthly journal of original research on the problem of war Canadiana ,1985 Didakometry and Sociometry ,1992 Peace is Possible Mary Alban Bouchard,Herauf, Jerome,1985 Women and Love Shere Hite,1989 Worldwide Report ,1987 Reprints from the Soviet Press ,1987 Daily Report ,1987 A Matter of Life Clara Urquhart,1973-01-23
